GREENFIELD HIGH SCHOOL
Greenfield, Massachusetts

46 Teachers

956 Pupils

GREENFIELD HIGH SCHOOL is a modern, comprehensive high school containing an Auditorium seating 1,000, a Library with 72 chairs, a Science lecture room, Gymnasium and Cafeteria. The building was opened in 1924 and cost approximately $600,000. School begins at 8:10 and closes at 1:45 for the Senior, Junior, and Sophomore classes, while the Freshman class has a lunch period from 11:45 to 1:45, followed by two periods which close at 3:30. This plan offers a six-period day for all classes.

To ELIZABETH JOY ROSE, an untiring and faithful friend, whose high ideals of citizenship have been a constant inspiration, we, the Class of 1931, dedicate this "Exponent Annual".

Marion Kirkland Alger

"Red"

*"Rosy are her cheeks,
And a rose for her mouth."*

Is there anyone who does not know this red-head? Tennis and Latin have taken up quite a share of "Red's" time, but she has always managed to have a good time wherever she went. If you hear a hearty laugh ring out along the corridor, you'll know it's "Red," and if you look closely you will see mischief in her eye. In whatever she undertakes we know she will be a success. G. H. S. wishes her the greatest luck and happiness!

Elsie Frances Allen

"El"

"There is none like her, none."

Class Basketball team (2); Varsity Basketball Team (3), (4); Exponent — Girl's Athleties; "Belle of Barcelona" (2); "Pinafore" (3); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Archery Club (4); Latin Club (4); Dance Committee (4); Band (2), (3), (4).

Queen Elsie has smiled her way into the hearts of all who know her. Because of her cheerfulness, she has made many friends in her four years in G. H. S. Lately you never see Elsie without "Johnnie." Wherever there is fun to be had, you will always find these two inseparable pals. "El" has also found time for basketball, Journalism, band, and countless other things. Why, she was even mother-in-law in a Dramatic Club play! She is G. H. S.'s own queen.

Mary Louise Allen

"Weezy"

*"I like fun and I like jokes
'Bout as well as most the folks."*

Honor Roll (1), (2), (3), (4); Pro Merito; Year Book Staff; Science Club (4); Clerk of Student Council (3); Band (2), (3), (4).

Brilliant! That adjective describes our "Weezy" to a "T." If we ever wanted any aid in some difficult problem, she was always there with her ever-ready help. However, her friends know of two of her great weaknesses — jokes and chemistry. Even though she has spent a lot of time with her books, "Weezy" has thoroughly enjoyed her High School life. M. S. C. welcomes her next year. All the success in the world, Mary Louise.

Madelyn Gertrude Ashley

"Sis"

"She is gentle; she is shy."

Captain Class Team (3); Year Book Staff (4); "Pinafore" (3); Secretary Science Club (4); Debating Club (4); Cheer Leader (3), (4).

"Sis," the tiny girl with the disarming smile, has been with us only three years, but in that time all who know her have grown to love her. "Sis" was one of the cheer leaders who won for us the cheering cup at the fair. Both the Science Club and the Debating Club claim her as a member. Wherever she goes, we know she will meet with nothing but success.

Lois Louise Atcherson

"Lou"

"A few plain strong instincts. A few plain rules."

Spanish Club (4); Archery Club (4).

Lois, our own Ella Cinders! All through their four years Lois and Esther have been inseparable, and whenever there were sports to be enjoyed, there you could find them. Lois was a member of the Spanish Club, and usually could be depended upon to have her lessons completed. Her plans for the future are undecided, but we wish her the greatest luck!

132 Working in Tower Hall

Elizabeth Helen Attesi

"Lib"

"Life is not so short but that there is always time enough for courtesy."

Awards on Royal and Remington; Commercial Club (4); Glee Club (1), (2).

Elizabeth Helen Attesi is that dark-haired girl whom we hear so much about but never see. She is active in commercial activities and is ambitious for a future in commercial work. Elizabeth is very studious and will succeed in any task that she undertakes. We all wish her great success.

Willard Emerson Ballou

"Shrimp"

"He that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast."

Pro Merito; Basketball (3), (4); Manager of Football; Baseball (4); Treasurer (3); Vice-president (4); Hi-Y (2), (3), President Hi-Y (4); Student Council (4); Year Book Staff; Senior Dance Committee.

Willard Ballou, otherwise known to his friends as "Shrimp" because of his height, has been active in school affairs ever since he entered High School. As president of the Student Council he brought the year to a successful close. "Shrimp" has also been active in athletics, and has saved many a day for G. H. S. He is planning a higher education, and with him go our best wishes for success.

Hester Barker

"Hes"

"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine."

Typewriting Awards on Royal and Remington Typewriters (4); Commercial Club (4).

Hester Barker is that fair Senior who proffered a helping hand whenever there was any work to be done in the Commercial Class. She is fond of school and has scarcely missed a day since entering. Hester is a member of the Commercial Club and has taken part in its activities. We wish her the best of luck in the future.

David White Bartlett

"Dave"

"Talking is one of the fine arts."

Band (1), (2), (3), (4); Glee Club (4); G. H. S. Syncopators (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Hi-Y Club (4); Exponent—Features (3), (4); Sports (3), (4); Associate Editor of Year Book (4); "Rear Car" (3); "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" (4); "The Boob" (4); "Pepita" (4).

"Dave" has worked hard to advertise many plays and has often made us laugh with his skits. He is also famous for his column, Hoarse Laffs, which is known far and wide. Because of his sunny disposition he has made many friends, among whom a fair Junior stands quite high. We know he will succeed in any undertaking, so we wish him the best of luck.

Kathryn Harriet Battey

"Kay"

"Unto the pure all things are pure."

Glee Club (1).

"Kay" is always around when we need help especially with cakes for the Senior dances. She is seldom heard, but we always take notice of her because of her smile. She has made many friends among us and we know she will succeed. Hair-dressing seems to be her future career, and we know that she will secure the trade of the Senior class.

William Baxter, Jr.

"It is a poor sport that is not worth the candle."

Band (3), (4); Science (1), (2), (3); Athletics, Bicycle Race (4).

"Bill" is one of the quietest members of our class and participates in only a few of our activities because he makes his home in North Leverett. He likes sports and hopes to continue to participate in athletics. The girls of G. H. S. admire him because of his curly hair, so beware "Bill" or girls will be your downfall in the future.

"Bill"

Anna Judyth Bernstein

Anna

*"The rainbow comes and goes,
And lovely is the rose."*

Pro Merito; Dramatic Club (4); Science Club (4); Latin Club (4); Glee Club (1); Debating Club (4); Senior Play, "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" (4).

Anna's first three years in high school didn't give anyone much chance to really know her. In that short time she was only a rose-bud. In her Senior year she became a fully blossomed rose. Her sweet smile and charming manners have made her many friends and admirers. Our best wishes for success go with you always, Anna!

Zelda Elizabeth Bernstein

Zelda

"Patience is a virtue."

Spanish Club (2); Commercial Club (4); Glee Club (4).

Zelda is that quiet Senior who works hard and seldom complains of her work. She has been patient and faithful, and has many friends and manages to keep them. She is well-liked by all who know her. G. H. S. wishes her the best of luck and success wherever she may go and in whatever she undertakes.

Leonard Raymond Berry

"Len"

"To be trusted is a greater compliment than to be loved."

In the past few years "Len" has been seen almost entirely in the company of a little blonde girl. They have become familiar figures in and about school, and they always seem to have so much to talk about. Besides being "Lil's" constant companion and a conscientious worker, Leonard is everyone's friend. The class of '31 wishes him the best of luck.

Mary Isabelle Berry

"Scotty"

"How much lies in laughter?"

Typewriting Awards.

Mary Berry has come to us for four years from Millers Falls. Mary seems to have magic in her fingers from the looks of her typing records. She is very popular among her classmates, and is very active in dancing, driving, swimming, and tennis. She finds Greenfield rather attractive.

William Douglass Blake

"Billy"

"There is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother."

Track (2), (4); (Center) Football (3), (4); Basketball Manager (4); Year Book Staff (4); Book-Week Play (4); Dramatic Club (4); Hi-Y Club (3), (4); President of French Club (4); Orchestra (1), (2), (3); Public Speaking Contest (3); Senior Dance Committee; Student Council.

Somebody ought to appoint "Bill" official jester of the Senior Class. He knows more about jokes than all the rest of '31 put together, and he has managed to keep the class in hysterics almost all the time. There is also a serious side to "Bill." He has been prominent in the musical activities of the school as well as in athletics and Hi-Y Club. He is a cheerful and optimistic little volume of jokes. "Bill" plans to attend Maine University next year and take up forestry and we know the country will be overgrown with trees in a few years.

Sheldon Pratt Bliss

"The noblest mind the best contentment has."

Year Book Staff (4); Student Council (1), (4); Vice-president (4); President of Freshman Class; Orchestra (School and Assembly) (1), (2), (3), (4); School Band (1), (4); Cheer Leader (3), (4); Public Speaking Contest (3); Senior Dance Committee (4); Photograph Committee (4); Manager of Baseball (4); Honor Roll (1), (3), (4); Plays—"Pinafore" (3), "Red Owl" (3), "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" (4); Clubs—Dramatic (2), (3), (4), Vice-president (3), (4); Hi-Y (2), (3), (4), Vice-president (4); Science (4); French (2).

"Shelly" needs no introduction for who of us hasn't met him sometime during the last four years? What of importance for the good of the school has happened that "Shelly" hasn't had something to do with? The answer is almost nothing. If something needs an efficient manager, or if some important committee needs a chairman "Shelly" is the one to fill the position. He has not been too busy however, to neglect the attraction in the office. G. H. S. wishes him as great success in his future undertakings as he has had the past four years.

"Shelly"

Minnie Block

"Min"

"Few things are impossible to diligence and skill."

Editor-in-chief of Exponent (4); Editor-in-chief of Year Book (4); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); French Club (1), (3), (4); Glee Club (1); Debating Club (4); Student Council (4); Silver G. (4).

Minnie's four years in G. H. S. have not been spent in vain. She is one of our most jolly members. But for her skillful work what would have become of our "Exponent"? And how she always planned for those conventions! Fun, weren't they? By winning a newspaper contest she added once more to her laurels. Besides all these activities, Minnie has kept her scholarship in ranking with the highest. Lots of luck next year, Minnie.

32 Nurse at Franklin County Hospital.

-32 Married -

Helen Phoebe Bonneville

"Bonnie"

"A good reputation is more valuable than money."

Certificate on Remington (2); Certificate on Royal (3); Class Basketball (1), (2), (3); Commercial Club (4).

"Bonnie" is one of the popular short people in the class of '31. She is probably best known for her auburn hair and cheery smile. Many people know how she is always helping to brighten up her surroundings. Does she know her teeth? She spends her spare time in a dentist's office. Don't you love the sound of that drill "Bonnie"? G. H. S. wishes you the best of luck in the future.

Ernestine Frances Bostley

"Ernie"

"Patience is a remedy for every sorrow."

Honor Roll; Certificate on L. C. Smith (2); Certificate on Underwood (3); Certificate on Royal (3); Certificate on Remington (3); Class Basketball (3); Commercial Club (4); Glee Club (1), (2), (3), (4).

"Ernie" is one of the real brunettes of the class, and she has her share of friends. Have you heard her play the piano? She certainly knows her music. Her typing ability has won quite a place for her in the commercial department. Aside from her school work and outside activities she has worked with "Ev" in the office. Whatever you do next year, "Ernie," here's luck to you.

*132 Insurance office - Blood
18 Mr.*

John Griswold Bouker

"Johnnie"

"The sleep of a laboring man is sweet."

Pro Merito (4); Football (3), (4); Basketball (3), (4); Vice-president of Class (3); Hi-Y (3), (4); French Club (1), (4).

Here he is! Who hasn't heard or known of our "Johnnie"? He is that tall broad-shouldered, quiet yet witty person, who did such splendid work on the football team. His pals are many and he always manages to keep them laughing. John is always in evidence at the Senior parties with his "inspiration," and just ask him sometime if he knows how to back a car into a fire hydrant. The best of luck at Deerfield, "Johnnie."

John Joseph Bowe

"Jack"

"Happy am I; from care am I free."

Football (2), (3), (4); All Valley Right End (4); All County Right End (3), (4).

"Jack" is that big strapping "soda jerker" who helped bring the football team through many victories, especially those Turners' games. What would we do without that broad grin and those snappy remarks? Then we must add those "storm windows" and the manner which they attracted the "femmes." "Jack" always manages to get his beauty sleep, which perhaps explains his frequent visits to the office after 8:10 a.m. His abilities, however, are convincing, and we know he will be a great success.

Dorothy Norma Braff

"Dotty"

"Be glad and your friends are many."

Commercial Club (1), (4); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Remington and Royal Typewriting Awards; Exponent (4); Book-Week Play (4).

"Dot" is one of those girls who has the faculty of looking nice in whatever she wears. She makes scores of friends and always keeps their friendship. She has a well known dramatic ability. She has always been one of the foremost members of the Commercial Club. Wherever she may go, G. H. S. wishes her the best of luck and success.

Ruth Harriet Breslin

"Ruthie"

"How near to good is what is fair!"

Typewriting Awards, Remington and Royal (4).

Ruth comes from Millers Falls so she hasn't had much time for school activities. She is that special friend of Mary Berry's and where you see one you will usually find the other. Ruth has many friends among the students of G. H. S. in spite of the fact that she was a total stranger four years ago.

Walter John Broughan, Jr.

Walter

"So patient, peaceful, loyal, loving, pure."

Basketball (2); Science Club (2).

We have had Walter in our midst for four years, but have hardly known the fact because he is so quiet. As a member of Room 14 he has been carried along by the activities of the class of '31 and has helped in his own way, even if we haven't known or recognized him. He is girl-shy, but perhaps the future will tell the story.

32

"Kay"

Katherine Frances Bullette

"Wisdom is better than rubies."

Honor Roll; Pro Merito; Typewriting Awards; "Pinafore"; Commercial Club (2), (4); President (4); Glee Club (3), (4); Dramatic Club (4); Public Speaking Contest.

"Kay" is that little girl with that twinkle in her eye and ready smile for everyone. There is something about her that attracts people. She never gets excited and when she starts talking everyone pays attention, for "Kay" always has something interesting to say. She is an ambitious little person, for she has not only stood high in her studies, but has spent some of her spare hours at Carson's. She also likes big ears, especially when that certain "somebody" from Turners Falls is at the wheel. We wish you luck in whatever you undertake, "Kay."

Margaret Mary Bulman

"Knowledge is power"

Honor Roll; Spanish Club (2), (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Book-Week Play (4); Latin Club (4); Vice-president of Spanish Club (4); Pro Merito.

Margaret Bulman has been a studious member of the class of '31. Her college friends have kept her so busy outside of school hours that we haven't seen much of her. She has been, however, a faithful member of the Dramatic Club. She has been a helpful, willing, and efficient member of the class. "Peg" has chosen Smith College for further study, and we wish her success there.

Stanley Hobart Burgess

"Stan"

Hi-Y (4).

Who's the quiet little boy in Room 14, who barely lets his existence become known? "Stan" has not been very active in his High School career, but is noted for his witty remarks. "Stan" says he enjoys history class. Perhaps he will take up history after graduation but whatever he does, here's luck.

Harold Edward Burke

"Harry"

"He was ever precise in promise-keeping."

Football (3).

Harold is better known by his nickname, "Harry." He is short, but very broad-shouldered. These give a suggestion of the strength which we know is there,—ask any of his football mates when he tackles them in a practice session. "Harry" is very popular—ask his many friends. We wish "Harry" the best of luck and hope that he will never forget his friends in G. H. S.

Esmonde Joseph Bushey

"Essy"

"Play up, play up, and play the game."

Honor Roll (1), (4); Hockey (1), (2), (3), (4); Baseball, Junior Varsity (2), (3); Football (3), (4); Class Basketball (1), (2), (3), (4); Golf (3), Captain (4); Member of Year Book Staff.

"Essy" is that tall, stalwart lad who plays football and hockey. He strides through the corridors with panther-like ease that reminds one of an Indian. He is admired and liked by everyone for his charming personality and the ability to make life-long friends. We are sure that "Essy" will be a success wherever he goes, and G. H. S. wishes him luck.

32 at Fairfield Academy

John Dinsmore Caldwell

"Johnnie"

"Truth is precious and divine."

Hockey Manager (2); Journalism (2), (3); Band (1), (2), (3), (4); Orchestra (1); Assembly Orchestra (1); Science Club (1).

"Johnnie" is that tall, bashful blond that everyone likes so well. "Johnnie" could pose for the fashion-plate, of what the well-dressed man will wear. He is carefree and a very easy-going chap, with a pleasing personality and the faculty of making friends easily. We hope that he will never forget the friends that he has made in G. H. S. We wish "Johnnie" success and the best of luck.

Roberta Carpenter

"Bert"

"So sweet the blush of bashfulness."

Honor Roll (1), (2), (3); Girls' Basketball (2); Commercial Club (1), (2), (3), (4).

"Bobbie" is that little blonde girl who has been so prominent in the activities sponsored by the Commercial Club. She is admired and liked by everyone. She has "It" in the form of a charming personality. She is the spirit of neatness itself. G. H. S. knows that such a little miss will be a success wherever she may go, and we wish her the best of luck.

'32 married.

Ina Charlotte Carroll

Ina

"Virtue is like a rich stone — best plain set."

Ina is that tall, blonde girl who is so quiet. She is well known on account of her various activities with the Salvation Army, having been a prominent member of this organization for a great many years. Wherever she may go and whatever she may do, we hope that she will never forget G. H. S. We heartily wish her success and luck in whatever she may undertake.

Evelyn Louise Causebrook

"Tote"

'32 ab a sanatorium with T. B.

"And what she greatly thought, she nobly dared."

Honor Roll (1); Exponent (3); "Rear Car" (3); "Belle of Barcelona"; Danee Committee (4); Band (2), (3), (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Glee Club (1), (2), (3), (4).

Did you ever see Louise when she wasn't enjoying herself? Of course not. She is one of those persons who have the happy faculty of making things lively for herself and for others. Louise and her little Ford have become quite a figure around G. H. S. Often on these excursions a certain alumnus is seated at her side. But, besides thoroughly enjoying herself, she has done much for her school and her class. She belongs to the Dramatic Club and has displayed great talent. Louise has been the spirited drum major of our High School Band for three years. Oh! what would we do without Louise?

'35 married

Anna Lucille Cavanaugh

"Ann"

"Her looks were like a flower in May,
Her smile was like a summer moon."

Honor Roll; Commercial Club (1); Spanish Club (2).

Anna is a person about whom everyone says "she's one peach of a girl." We wish there were more just like her. That Anna belongs to our studious group is shown by the appearance of her name on the Honor Roll. She is especially interested in Commercial subjects and Spanish. We might add that with her dark hair one could almost mistake her for a Spanish Senorita. Anna has not yet decided what she will do next year, but our best wishes go with her.

Ellen Grace Chiz

Ellen

*"A smile for all, a welcome glad,
A jovial coaxing way she had."*

Remington Award (3); Commercial Club (2), (4).

Ellen is that shy little girl who very much enjoys Commercial subjects, but she has her good times—what say, Ellen? She always has a pleasant greeting for everyone, and we will certainly miss her sunny smile. In her Junior year Ellen was a "sub" on the Girls' Varsity Basketball team. We know that she was an exceptional forward, making wonderful shots. She is planning to work next year, and we know that she will be as successful as she has been in G. H. S.

Everett Le Roy Choiniere

32 At the First Mail

Everett

"Wit is the salt of conversation."

Archery Club (4); Science Club (4); Orchestra (1), (2), (3), (4); Band (1); (2), (3), (4); Assembly Orchestra (3), (4); Glee Club (1), (2), (3), (4); Hi-Y (4); "Pepita," operetta (4).

We all know Everett by his witty sayings and his love for music. He has belonged to the band and orchestra for his four High School years. These musical organizations will have to learn to get on without him, and it will be hard to find someone to replace him. The rest of us will miss his witty sayings and his unusual remarks that have brightened many a dull class room. We wish you great success in your work next year Everett.

Henry Williams Choiniere

Henry

*"You eat and laugh so much
You must be a jolly fellow."*

Royal Typewriting Award; Spanish Club (2); Band (1), (2), (3); Orchestra (1), (2).

Henry is known as a happy-go-lucky fellow. Because of his cheerful manner he has made many close friends in G. H. S. He has taken part in both orchestra and band during his high school career. We've decided that appreciation of music must run in families. Since Henry is planning to work next year, we know he will make a success and our best wishes go with him.

Kenneth William Clark

"Ken"

"Still waters run deep."

"Ken" is so shy that he has not dared to let himself out and get better acquainted with his classmates. He is naturally quiet and studying seems to be his main occupation. In this he is a very conscientious worker. His future is still undecided.

Helen Pauline Collings

Helen

"Be happy and your friends are many."

Honor Roll (1), (2), (3), (4); Eight Typewriting Certificates; O. G. A. Pin; Commercial Club (2), (4).

Helen knows how to make use of her long fingers. Besides being one of our fastest typists she is a good piano player. It is only at times when she gets out of her shy spell that she will let her talent be known. She has an easy disposition to get along with, and her wistful little smile can usually be detected a long distance.

Barbara Elizabeth Collins

"Youth will have its fling."

Senior Dancee Committee (4).

This lively, happily humored young lady came to us in the middle of our Jimior Year from Dover, New Hampshire. It is reported by the opposite sex that she is a fairy to dance with. Her ambition is to be a Domestic Science teacher. We wish her luck in this respect. Although "Betty" has been with us but a short time, there is hardly a person not acquainted with her.

Helen Etta Comins

Helen

"A good friend is a precious thing."

Remington Certificate (1); Glee Club (4); Orchestra (1); Honor Roll.

Helen comes to us from Millers Falls. Her main talent is music, and it is as bad as trying to follow a streak of lightning as to follow her flying fingers on the piano. One way by which she can always be identified is by her wholesome laugh. Helen is planning to go into nursing after she graduates.

Geneva Condraski

"A friend to one and all, a helping ready at your call."

Typewriting Awards; Shorthand Certificates; Commercial Club (1), (2), (4); Spanish Club (2).

By just glancing through "Jennie's" list of achievements, it is easy to see that most of her time has been used in the commercial department. She has added much life and spice to the Commercial Club this last year, and much of the success of its meetings are due to her. In whatever she undertakes, here's wishing her "the best o' luck."

"Jennie"

"Peg"

Margaret Mary Connors

*"The joy of youth and health her eyes display,
An ease of heart her every look conveyed."*

Honor Roll (1), (4); Girls' Varsity Basketball (3); Girls' Athletic Advisory Board (4); Feature Writer of Exponent (3); School Editor (4); "A Pair of Lunatics" (3); Peggy in "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" (4); "Belle of Barcelona" (2); "Pinafore" (3); Year Book Staff (4); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Glee Club (1), (2), (3), (4).

"Peg" is one of the most versatile members of the Senior Class for, besides being a clever actress, she is also an accomplished dancer, pianist, basketball player, and an all round good sport. She proved her dramatic ability when she played the role of Peggy in the Senior Play, "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy." Often is she seen accompanied by a young man, formerly of G. H. S., but now a student at Fordham. Probably the College of New Rochelle will be graced by this young lady's presence next year, but whatever you do, "Peg," the best to you.

George Henry Coombs

George

*"We grant although he had much wit,
He was very shy of using it."*

George is our big he-man who hails from Bernardston. He is a good natured and joking sort of a fellow. We hear that George is quite a basketball player, having played for the North Parish Scouts. Besides this, he has attended some social events at the Parish. Good luck for the future, George.

Leland George Cote

"Lee"

"A merrier man I never spent an hour's talk withal."

Honor Roll (1), (3), (4); "Red Owl" (3); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Science Club (3); Latin Club (4); Junior Prize Speaking (3); Debating Club (4), Vice-president (4).

The one boy on whom we can depend to make classes interesting is "Lee." He is very clever and witty in his sayings and always brings up some enjoyable subject for class discussion. When we have oral topics we all await "Lee's" eagerly, for he is sure to talk the whole period and be so entertaining that the teacher likes it and does not think to tell him to stop. "Lee" enjoys dramatics and has taken part in many plays and also in the Junior Prize Speaking. We know that he will keep up the good work and be very successful in the future.

Ellen Elizabeth Crowningshield

Ellen

*"Content to do the best work to preserve her own dignity
And leave the rest to the future."*

Ellen is that tall shy girl who does so well in whatever she undertakes. True, she may be silent and shy, but, as actions speak louder than words, so Ellen's work in school and outside speak louder than her words. Efficient, kind, punctual—that's Ellen. So, with these many good qualities of yours, Ellen, may you be as successful after High School as you have been here.

Helen Beatrice Curtis

Helen

*"To hear her speak, and sweetly smile
You are in Paradise while."*

Helen is interested in her work, which is commercial, and thinks she will continue along this line in the future. During her four years in High School, she has been rather quiet, preferring her old friends to any new ones she might have found. She has been a diligent worker and a steadfast friend, and all her classmates will miss her in the future. Here's happiness Helen.

Avery Harrison Demond

"Ave"

"I am in earnest and I will be heard."

Assistant Business Manager of Exponent (2); Business Manager (3); Science Club (4); Honor Roll (1), (2).

Avery is the short (?) stocky (?) Senior who never enjoys studying, but who has a very great craving for slips which invite him to keep company with the Principal in Room 23 for one hour. During his Freshman and Sophomore years he seemed to like his teachers for he attended his classes, but during his last two years something went wrong for he attends when he wishes. Avery intends to study at Deerfield Academy next year. Our best wishes are with you, Avery.

Mary Josephine Donovan

"May"

"Youth holds no society with grief."

Typewriting Awards; Spanish Club (2); Glee Club (1), (2), (3).

Mary is another one of our successful Commercial Department misses. Everyone has seen her tall, queenly figure in our corridors many times, for she is the recipient of many admiring glances as her clothes are right up to the minnute. Did anyone ever see "May" when she didn't look "smart"? As a mannequin she can certainly make a big success, but in whatever she undertakes we wish her the best luck.

'32 Handbook

Ralph Malcolm Duncan

"Ray"

"All his faults are such that one loves him still the better for them."

Football (4); Class Basketball (4).

Ralph is just another one of those boys who can not see the usefulness of books. Although he has made good in his studies, no one seems to know the reason why. We wonder if it was Ralph who tried to "skip" school by sending in an empty envelope to the correspondence school? In his last year he attempted to be "sporty" by taking up the gentle pastime of football and class basketball. Upon asking Ralph if he would continue his studying his answer was, "Maybe yes and maybe no."

Bruce Ellis

Bruce

"Ask me no questions and I'll tell you no fibs."

By some people he is known, but by others he is just another—boy. If you wish to meet him, the next time you hear a loud noise, like a street fight, go there and you'll see him. His middle name is "noisy." He either came of his own free will and accord, or was sent to us from the little school across the river in his Junior year.

Ada Jennie Elmer

"Ade"

"Always doing something good."

Spanish Club (2); Commercial Club (2).

Ada's smiling disposition will be greatly missed next fall. She is one of those quiet (?) Seniors who make the Senior corridor sound like a scene at a prize fight. She is another graduate who doesn't have free love for her books, but she did qualify for the Spanish and Commercial Clubs. Whatever your future may be, Ada, here's luck to you!

Warren Ellsworth Facey

Warren

"Zealous yet modest."

Hi-Y Club (3), (4); Band (2), (3), (4); Orchestra (4); Assembly Orchestra (4).

Warren believes in being seen and not heard, except on his sax. He has done a great deal for G. H. S. in a musical way and is a very hard worker in everything he does. He seems to be a woman-hater around school, but perhaps that's because she's not a Senior too. Although Warren's future is, as yet, undecided, we all wish him heaps of success.

John Failla

"Johnny"

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

"Belle of Barcelona" (2); "Pinafore" (3); "Pepita" (4); Hi-Y (2), (3), (4); Spanish Club (2); Band (1), (2), (3), (4); Glee Club (1), (2), (3), (4); Special Chorus (4).

"Johnny" is that sociable little fellow who plays a baritone horn in the school band. He has always been a strong supporter of our teams and a good friend to everyone. "Johnny" has done a lot of hard work for the dance committee and the best part of the gym decorations were usually his brain-children. He is one of those happy-go-lucky fellows whom everyone likes.

Morrison Finnie

"Finnie"

"A dry jest, sir . . . I have them at my fingers' end."

Spanish Club (2).

"Finnie" is that blond with the purple and white sweater. Every time there is a crowd gathered you are sure to see him the center of the group. "Finnie" seems to prefer English to any other subjects we have noticed.

Fullerton Milo Galbraith

"Phil"

"Ambition has no rest!"

Exponent (3), (4); "Belle of Barcelona" (2); "Pinafore" (3); "Rear Car" (3); "The Managers" (4); "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" (4); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Glee Club (2), (3), (4); French Club (4); Band (3), (4); Silver G.; Year Book Staff.

"Phil" is the popular wavy-haired hero of the Senior Class. He has carried away all the honors in dramatics, and has been very prominent in our musical organizations. Nobody likes a hot argument better than "Phil," as he has shown in his debates. Everyone knows and admires him for his ability as an actor. We all expect him to go far in the world of art, and wish him as much success in life as he had in G. H. S.

Minnie Gendler

"Red"

"Persuasion tips her tongue whene'er she talks."

Glee Club (1); Spanish Club (2); French Club (1), (2), (4); Debating Club (4); Silver G.; Circulation Manager of Year Book.

You probably know all about "Red" without reading this. She "Circulation managed" the Exponent as well as sold copies at the close of school. "Red" is a cheerful, sociable, little red-head, and believe us, she is some live-wire. Everybody knows and likes her and she is one of the big reasons for the success of the Exponent. We can't see how she can help but be a big success in life with a personality like that.

Dorothy Evelyn Goodby

"Dot"

"Friendliness is a virtue of success."

Pro Merito (4); Honor Roll (1), (2), (3), (4).

"Dot" is an active member of the Pro Merito Society. She has always been one of the best dressed girls who have graced our Senior Class. She had quite a struggle when she decided to let her hair grow, but she has achieved success. You will notice the small pug at the nape of her neck. Wherever she may go and whatever she attempts, G. H. S. wishes her the best o' luck.

Mary Margaret Gorey

"Bebe"

"Buxom, Blithe and Debonair."

Vice-president of Class (2); Student Council (1); Captain Class Basketball (3); Exponent (3), (4); Plays—"When the Clock Strikes" (3), "Pinafore" (3), "Belle of Barcelona" (2), "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" (4); Glee Club (2), (3), (4); Archery (4); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); French Club (1), (2), (4); Senior Dance Committee (4); Year Book Staff (4).

"Bebe" is that good-looking, happy, social butterfly who has a smile for everyone. She is seen at all the dances and social gatherings in school as well as out. Don't, however, get the impression that she doesn't work. She is always well up in her studies, which, with her pleasing personality, makes her one of the most popular and honored figures in the school.

George Herbert Grant, Jr.

"Wit and wisdom are born with a man."

Pro Merito; Honor Roll (1), (2), (3), (4); Hi-Y Club (4).

Who is there that does not know this popular Senior? He is that tall, good natured young man in Room 15. George has quite a sense of humor, and it was always a help when classes were becoming dull. He has made a great many friends during his stay in G. H. S. We're all with you, George.

George

Edwin Burr Gregory

"Eddie"

"Truth is mighty and will prevail"

Pro Merito (4); Assistant Business Manager of Year Book (4); Exponent Staff (4); Hi-Y Club (2), (3), (4); Treasurer (4); Science Club (4); Glee Club (4).

"Eddie" has made his four years of High School profitable. He has not only obtained a high average in his studies, but has made many friends among his teachers and fellow pupils. He belongs to numerous clubs, and has worked hard to make these clubs better so that the next class can enjoy them. He is going further in educating himself and we wish him the best of luck.

Elizabeth Lucetta Haigis

"Lib"

"But she is wondrous fair."

"Gypsy Rover" (1); "Belle of Barcelona" (2); "Pinafore" (3); Student Council (2); Latin Club (4); Glee Club (1), (2), (3), (4).

"Lib," the speed queen of G. H. S., has been seen frequently this past year tearing around in her bright yellow roadster. In between rides she has managed to keep up in her studies. "Lib" hasn't decided as to her future, but she is evidently thinking of the old adage—"Hitch your wagon to a star, just sit tight and there you are." She's sitting tight, and our wishes are that the rest of this maxim comes true.

Irwin Read Hale

"It"

"It is difficult not to write satire."

Pro Merito (4); Second Team Basketball (3); Business Manager (3); Student Council (3); Hi-Y (3), (4); Silver G. Club (3), (4); French Club (1), (3), (4).

"Ir" is one of our most versatile Seniors. In studies he ranks among the highest, being a member of the Pro Merito Society. Although he works afternoons, he finds time for school activities, for at the end of his Junior year, he was able to claim a Silver G. He cannot go out for sports because of his work, but he is no laggard in basketball, tennis, or swimming. Besides all of this he is frequently seen in the innermost circles of the social group. Deerfield Academy will claim this industrious, cheerful student for a year before he enters college.

Clyde Luther Hamilton

"Cly"

"Zealous, yet modest."

"Cly" is that modest chap who finds a feminine interest in the Sophomore class. We don't blame you "Cly," but how about giving your class a break. "Cly" has been faithful in his studies and likes the faculty. Perhaps that accounts for his being studious. He has made many friends and will go on doing so in the future.

Lonita Grace Harlow

"Lon"

"Variety alone gives joy."

Exponent Staff (2), (3), Associate Editor (3), Editor-in-chief (4); "Red Owl" (3); Student Council (4); Winner Junior Prize Speaking (3); Silver G. Club (3); Editor-in-chief Exponent Annual (4); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Spanish Club (4); Debating Club (4); Secretary (4); Second Prize Christmas Story Contest (4).

"Lon" is better known as "Miss Exponent" and to her we are partly indebted for our excellent newspaper. Her winning personality and charming voice enabled her to secure the Junior prize speaking award. She is one of the pillars of the Dramatic Club, and besides that, belongs to other clubs in which she is rated as a jolly member. "Lon" was the only girl to receive a Silver G. when the club was formed. Her literary ability won her the second prize in the Christmas Story Contest this year. Next year the Greenfield Library is to sponsor the keenness which has made her such an all-round girl.

Stanley Ellsworth Hartwell

"Stan"

*"My only books were women's looks
And folly's all they've taught me."*

Pro Merito (4); Interclass Basketball (2); Business Manager of Exponent (2), (3); Class Treasurer (1); Hi-Y (2), (3), (4); Science Club (2); Student Council (1), (3).

When Stanley is around the air fairly snaps with wisecracks and sarcasm. It isn't so much what he says, but the way he says it, that has helped to while away many a period of some dreaded class a little less boringly. Perhaps it is this ready wit that has made him so popular in his school life. Although he has spent many of his waking hours in the floral business, his studies have not been affected, as he is the president of the Pro Merito Society. Northeastern claims him next year, and we know Lady Luck will be with him in whatever he undertakes.

Russell Elwin Hawley

"Russ"

"Deeds, not words."

"Russ" seems to derive fun from almost anything. We never see him glum but with a smile for everyone. "Russ" doesn't seem to take an interest in the fairer sex, but maybe some day some young damsel will pierce his armor.

Eleanor Payne Henrich

"Henny"

*"She's little but she's wise
She's a terror for her size."*

Pro Merito (4); Basketball (1), (2), (3), (4); Exponent Staff (4); French Club (4); Latin Club (4); Archery Club (4); Debating Club (4).

What would the basketball team have done without Eleanor? Many a game has been won by her sportsmanship and fighting spirit. Besides excelling in athletics, Eleanor has been active in her High School career, as well as a true friend to everyone. Her ability as a student is shown by the numerous appearances of her name on the honor roll. Eleanor has found enjoyment in swimming and tennis and taken, all in all, is an all-round sport. Good luck Eleanor! Our best wishes go with you.

Erwin George Hoelle

"Er"

"Men of few words are the best men."

A man of mystery is Erwin. Everyone wonders where he spends his time and where he finds his enjoyment. He says he hasn't done anything, and yet we all know that he would be missed if not around. He is a helping friend and enjoys studying (?). His plans for the future are vague, but the best wishes of the class of '31 go with him.

Russell Ward HubbardKilleen is a man in the "Russ""Why study when sleep is so sweet?"*

Honor Roll; Football (2), (3), (4); Basketball (3), (4); Baseball (4); Spanish Club (4), President Spanish Club (4).

Who is it that appears nearly every morning when classes are already in order — why, Russell. We wonder what his interests are that prevent him coming to school on time. "Russ" has been quite active, and his accuracy in class basketball has been a great asset to his team. Next year his cheery "Hello" will be missed from G. H. S.'s corridors. The future is yet to be decided for "Russ," but '31 wishes him the best of luck in whatever he undertakes.

1/5/34John Henry Hyson"Pat""He says little but thinks much."

Baseball (2), (3), (4); Hockey (3), (4).

Who does not know that hockey star? We owe a lot to "Pat" for helping us take our opponents into camp. He has gained many friends and admirers during his four years here and no doubt he will gain many more. Of course we will miss him next year, but we will send our best wishes with him for his success.

'32 at the school officeEvelyn Jane Jablonski"Ev""Never idle a moment, but thrifty and thoughtful of others."

Honor Roll (1), (2), (3), (4); Pro Merito (4); Journalism (3), (4); Senior Year Book Committee (4); Typewriting Awards; Commercial Club (1), (2), (4).

Evelyn is that hard-working girl from Room 17. She can always be found in the office as soon as school closes, working as hard as ever. She is no stranger to the Roy Walker Dancing School, for she was seen there nearly every week last year. She is a little hazy on what she wants to do next year but we know that she will succeed. "Lots of luck, Evelyn!"

Evelyn Marie Jackson"Ev""Nothing is worth doing unless it is done well."*

Household Art Awards.

Everyone seems to think that Evelyn believes in the slogan "Silence is golden," but in spite of this there is another side to "Ev's" character. True, she may be silent but she is a good sport. She is often seen in either a Ford or a big tan Studebaker. Evelyn is undecided as to her future, but we wish her luck in whatever she undertakes.

Irene Clara JacobIrene"If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again."*

Honor Roll.

Irene is that pretty Senior whom every one admires, or rather envies, because of her curly hair. She is very friendly and will always be popular on account of her smile. She is interested in Commercial work and has proved herself in her work along this line.

'32 Mc Lellans - married - 35 - Irene

Mildred Rose Jarvis

"Millie"

"She takes reproof, defeat, and victory all with good cheer and joy."

Honor Roll; Basketball (1), (2), (3), (4); Basketball Manager (3); Basketball Captain (4); Year Book Committee (4); Photograph Committee (4); Class Treasurer (1); Class Secretary (2), (4); Cheer Leader (4); Commercial Club (4); Executive Committee (4).

Our "Millie" is that brunette who always has a great broad smile on her face. She never leaves her friends without a cheerful "so long" and a great big smile. "Millie" is our cheer leader, too! When she shakes her fists at us we do our yells with plenty of vim. She was captain of basketball, and after every game she runs down the corridor, smiles, and says, "We won"! When "Millie" leaves this year we wish her the very best of luck. "So long, Millie."

Ruth Frances Jones

"Jonesie"

"As merry as the day is long."

Honor Roll (3); Basketball; Field Hockey; "Pinafore"; Spanish Club (2); Archery (4); Glee Club (2), (3), (4).

Ruth is that tall blonde girl who has won more new laurels in basketball this year, for who hasn't seen Ruth performing her best as forward on the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team. More than once has she been cheered for piling up scores for her team. Besides this, her jokes and good humor have added fun to many a weary class room. Whatever you do after High School days, "Jonesie" may luck be with you.

Ella Harriet Judd

"El"

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness and all her paths are peace."

Honor Roll (1), (2), (3), (4); Pro Merito; Personal Editor of Exponent (4); Year Book Committee (4); Journalism (3), (4); French Club (2); Spanish Club (4); Archery Club (4).

Almost everyone knows that there are quiet and studious people in G. H. S., and that Ella is one of them. She is quiet, she talks quietly, and studies quietly. Ella is one of the students who has been on the honor roll all the four years in High School. With this good record we know she will be a success in her career.

Dorothy Mae Kartcheske

"Dot"

"The rule of my life is to make business a pleasure and pleasure a business."

Typewriting Certificates; Tennis Tournament (1); Commercial Club (4).

"Dot" is our happy-go-lucky daughter of G. H. S. She never worries, but is always joking and laughing off hardships that pass her way. The art of laughing and joking is all rolled up in one for "Dot." She never wears shoes that don't have heavy plates on the heels to make noise in the corridors and the rooms. "Dot" says, "Love, live, laugh, for tomorrow you may be sad and lonely."

Betty Hulme Kelleher

Betty

"A pound of pluck is worth a ton of luck."

Basketball (4); Class Basketball (3); Journalism (4); Club Editor (4); Journalism Convention (4); Archery Club (4); French Club (4); Latin Club (4).

Another one of our quiet and studious girls is Betty, but she does keep pace with her other friends at dances. Therefore we hope Betty will be as successful in college as she has been here.

1932 Smart Shapley '35 - married

Anna Elaine Kiefer

"Lucky is she who finds favor in everyone's eyes."

Honor Roll; Typewriting Certificates; Journalism (2), (3), (4); Assistant Editor of Exponent (4); Spanish Club (4); Dramatic Club (4).

Anna Kiefer, a dark-haired, good-looking girl, is often seen around the school. She is rather bashful and modest, but she makes that up by being industrious and a hard worker. She has been on the Exponent Staff for three years and has done a great deal of work. She has rendered invaluable assistance in her department and there will be a loss when she graduates. We all wish her success and happiness in the future, and we know that she will have plenty of it.

Anna

Mary Monica King

1932 Wife of the Elms.

"Mona"

"Friendship for all"

Honor Roll (1), (4); Exchange Editor (2); School Editor (4); Alumni Editor (3); French Club (4); Spanish Club (4); Science Club (4); Archery Club (4); Debating Club (4); Senior Year Book (4).

Monica has long been on the Exponent Staff and this year was the School Editor. She is a hard worker and has had much experience in literary work. Monica has many friends, and although she is rather quiet, great things may be expected of her. Next year she plans to attend the Rhode Island School of Design, and when she graduates she will be an accomplished interior decorator. Here's to success in the future, Monica.

Robert Magoon Koch

"Bob"

"A true friend."

Honor Roll (1), (2), (3), (4); French Club (2); Science Club (3), (4); President of Science Club (4); Hi-Y Club; Orchestra (1), (2); Band (1), (2); Senior Year Book (4); Debating Club (4); Silver G. (4); Exponent (4); Senior Dance Committee.

"Bob" is the Cattle Baron of the Senior Class, and in his many shows at the various fairs around the country he has won many prizes with his cows and calves. "Bob" is good-natured and willing to work; something which will gain him many friends and great success later in life. "Bob" plans to enter Massachusetts State College in the fall. If he attains such a high degree of efficiency in college as he has attained in High School, we shall not need to worry about the brightness of his future.

Marguerite Annabelle LaPean

"Peg"

"A merry heart doeth good like a good medicine."

Remington Typewriting Certificate; Basketball (1); Journalism (2), (3), (4); Editor of "Personals."

"Five foot two eyes of blue" applies perfectly to "Peg." She has spent rather a busy Senior year traveling hither and yon. The post-office has been kept busy sorting mail destined for Haywood Street. "Peg" has kept the study period in block two humming with conversation. How dull they might have been without her bright chatter about "this, that, and other things"! Although her future is as yet undecided, we know she will be a great success!

Rebecca Margaret LaPoint

1932 Krisges

"Becky"

*"Those graceful acts,
Those thousand decencies that daily flow
From all her words and actions."*

Rebecca is that cheery girl in Room 16 who has a smile for everyone. She is very well-liked by all of her friends and classmates, without exception. She says that she hasn't done very much during her High School career, but she spends her afternoons and Saturdays working very hard. Isn't that doing quite a bit? "Becky" is undecided what she will do, but we do know that it will turn out to be something worth while. Best of luck, "Becky."

Ernest Phillip Lapointe

Ernest

"A man he seems of cheerful yesterdays and confident tomorrows."

Science Club (3), (4); French Club (4); Treasurer Science Club (4).

Ernest, a tall dignified Senior with a serious air, has been rather retiring during his High School career. He has been a flashy player in the intramural leagues. The girls say that he is simply wonderful as a dancer, and we are willing to accept their verdict. Ernest is well known and has a multitude of friends. We wish him lots of success.

Beatrice Evelyn LeBaron

"Bea"

"Wearing all that weight of learning like a flower."

Remington Typewriting Certificate; Royal Pin; Tennis (1), (2), (3); Winner of Tournament in Freshman Year; Year Book Committee; Vice-president (2); Commercial Club (1), (2), (4).

"Bea" is a cheerful, good-natured, business like office girl. One has only to enter the office to realize that business is business to her. Because of this you cannot realize what a good sport she is. She is also a good athlete, for she plays tennis like a professional, and is the girl tennis star of the High School. If she shows the same characteristics after leaving High School, we can be sure she will be a great success.

Ruth Emma Lee

Ruth

"I prefer silent prudence to loquacious folly."

Honor Roll (1), (2), (3), (4); Typewriting Awards.

Ruth is one of the very quietest members of the Class of '31, but still she has hosts of friends. Ruth is always smiling, and never, never angry. She never disappoints her teachers by not having her lessons prepared. No sir! She always does just what she should do. We wish her the greatest success in anything that she may undertake.

Charles Franklin Lincoln

"Charlie"

"He loves to wonder and that is the seed of our science."

Science Club (1), (2), (3), (4); Camera Club (3), Vice-president; Band (1), (2), (3), (4); Orchestra (1), (2), (3), (4); Assembly Orchestra (2), (3), (4); Tea Dance Orchestra (4).

"Charlie" is the popular right hand man of the Senior Class. If lights are wanted for a Senior Dance, he is the one who installs them. When a stage manager is needed for a play, he is always willing to work and help in any way he can. With his popularity, cheerfulness, and ability, "Charlie" should certainly rise high in the world.

Mary Margaret Looney

Mary

woolworth's

"The silence that is in the starry sky."

Honor Roll; Spanish Club (4); French Club (4).

This last year Mary has been a faithful follower of all the snappy dances, both in and around town. She has thoroughly enjoyed herself, as can be seen by the ever happy look on her face. Mary is noted for her steadfast friendship, and her slow, friendly smile has brightened many a day for many a would-be student. No wonder she is so popular in Northampton! Many have wondered why she spent so large a share of her time there. With her friendly smile she cannot help but leave her mark in the world.

1932 George Fordham

Paul Donald Looney

"Boldness, again boldness, and ever boldness."

Baseball (1), (2), (3), Captain Baseball Team (4); Hockey (1), (2), Captain Hockey Team (4); Football (4); President of Class (2); Treasurer of Class (4); Student Council (4); Hi-Y (4).

Everyone in G. H. S. knows Paul as the "curly-headed pitcher." He filled this position successfully on the baseball nine, and surprised us all by making the football team in his Senior year. He was quite a player, too. Paul's cheerful manner has made him many friends here in school, and we all wish him the best of luck in life.

Paul

Mary Margaret Lukow

"Ichabod"

"Quiet, but all the more worthy."

Pro Merito; Typewriting Awards—Remington; Class Basketball (3); Commercial Club (4).

Mary has made a host of friends in G. H. S. although she is very quiet. Her cheery grin has brightened many a gloomy morning and lightened many a downcast mind. This young lady evidently found time also to do quite a bit of studying, for her name has appeared frequently on the honor roll. Success to you always, Mary!

Edward Francis Lynch

"Eddie"

*"Happy-go-lucky, fair and free,
Nothing there is that bothers me."*

Hockey (4).

"Ned," another woman hater, has glided quietly through his four years at G. H. S. Although not an ardent lover of books, he has managed to find time to keep up in his studies. His plans for the future are undetermined, but we know he will get there by just "taking it easy," and steering clear of girls. The best wishes of the class go with you, "Ned."

Mary Estelle Lynch

Mary

"With a roguish glint in her eye."

Honor Roll; Awards on L. C. Smith, Royal, and Underwood; O. G. A. Pin; Commercial Club (4).

The roguish glint in Mary's eye belies her rather quiet attitude, and gives one the impression that there is a "real pal." Mary hasn't spent much of her free time in High School activities, but has enjoyed herself fully during her four years here. She has added much fame to the school, as she was the only Junior member of the famous team of Commercial students who brought home so many honors in the contest of 1930. Best of luck, Mary.

1932 New Rochelle

Helen Constance Major

"Connie"

*"Argue, argue, early and late
If a line were crooked, she'd argue it straight."*

Honor Roll; Latin Club

Helen was another of the so-called "Social Butterflies." We hear that this young lady enjoyed social life in Springfield as well as in Greenfield and still managed to always have her lessens, and her name was frequently among the favored ones whose names appeared on the honor roll. Anyone who could do that deserves congratulations. Here's to you, Helen.

Ronald Carnegie Malloch

"Ronnie"

"He needs no eulogy—he speaks for himself."

Alas! "Ronnie" also, for some reason or other, has no use for the fair sex. Perhaps it is because he is devoting his time to his studies, in which he has been very successful. Well, you can only do justice to one thing at a time, eh "Ron." Many a floundering student has been helped out of a mental predicament by "Ron." The best wishes of the class go with you, always.

Karl Williams Maloy

Karl

"Wit is the salt of conversation, not the food."

Karl is well-known by every member of the Senior class as a "lot of fun." He's an accomplished dancer and always furnishes a good time. Although Karl hasn't been with us very long he has made many friends in G.H.S. We hear Karl spends most of his time on Woodleigh Avenue. He hasn't told us his future plans, but here's success!

Geraldine Maniatty

"Jerry"

"Oh, I am stabbed with laughter!"

Honor Roll (2); Typewriting Awards, L. C. Smith and Underwood; Commercial Club (4); Glee Club (1), (2), (3), (4).

Have you ever had an ice cream soda at the Federal Spa? Yes! Then you must know what a very efficient little "soda-jerker" our little "Jerry" is! We all like to have her with us because she is so cheerful and lively. She is always smiling.

Ruth Annette Markley

"Ruthie"

"She is fine as she is fair."

Pro Merito (4); Year Book Committee (4); Student Council (4); Senior Play (4); "Pinafore" (3); Glee Club (1), (2), (3), (4); Archery Club (4); Dramatic Club (4); "Pepita" (4); Debating Club (4); Special Chorus (4).

Blonde hair, twinkling eyes, and the cheeriest of smiles—that's our Ruthie. For four years she has smiled her way into the hearts of all her classmates. Everyone's friend, and willing at any time to lend a helping hand in any undertaking. She has worked hard in her High School career, as is shown by the number of times her name has appeared on the honor roll. She has added spice to the Dramatic Club, and her talents in this line led her to be chosen for the difficult role of a gossip in the Senior Class Play. Ruth plans to go to B.U., and G.H.S. wishes this sunshine girl the "best o' luck."

Doris Evangeline Mason

Gordon Theatre

"Dot"

"I hasten to laugh at everything for fear of being obliged to weep."

Pro Merito; Typewriting Awards, Remington and L. C. Smith; Commercial Club (1), (4); Spanish Club (2).

Of course you all know "Dot." She's that pretty, blonde Senior who is so promising in the business field. We all envy "Dot" her speed in Stenography and Typewriting. Her winning smile has given her a school-full of friends during her four years in High School. Therefore, we are sure that she shall be a success in business, and will win many more friends. "Dot" is planning to work next year.

Elizabeth Marie Maynard

"Liz"

"Talent is that which is in a man's power."
Pro Merito; Year Book Staff; Vice-president of Pro Merito; Latin Club (4); Dramatic Club (4).

"Lucky" is a girl we all find very interesting. She comes from far-away Denmark, and can tell you many very exciting incidents about that country. "Lucky" has been a very good scholar while in High School, and we all know that she will be very efficient in whatever she attempts.

Morris Stephen Maynard

"Morry"

Honor Roll (2); Baseball (2).

"Morry" is just another of those quiet Seniors. He studied a little harder than usual during his second year and made the honor roll. He also played on his class basketball team. Since then he has been reserved, taking a back seat in his school activities. It isn't any use to put anything over on "Morry," so don't try. His future is undecided as yet, but the best wishes of the class of '31 go with him wherever he may go.

James Keough McCarthy

"Jimmie"

"Music is well said to be the speech of angels."

Manager of Golf Team (4); Associate Editor of Exponent (4); Play, "Gypsy Rover" (2); Clubs— Hi-Y (4), Spanish (2); Band (1), (2), (3), (4); Orchestra (1), (2), (3), (4); Assembly Orchestra (4); G. H. S. Syncopators (4); Member of New England Orchestra (3); Glee Club (1), (2), (3), (4); Senior Dance Committee.

"Jimmie" is well known because of his musical ability. He is the solo trumpet player in the band, and has had several turns at directing the band in the absence of Mr. Finch. Beside his musical ability "Jimmie" has taken part in several plays. He has many friends among the students.

Elizabeth Frances McGrath

"Lib"

"Makes two grins grow where there was only a grouch before."

Treasurer of Commercial Club (4); Assistant Treasurer of Class (2); Glee Club (1), (2); Spanish Club (2); Commercial Club (2), (4); Honor Roll.

This jovial young Senior is characterized among all the students of G. H. S. by her very good nature, pleasing personality, and ready wit. "Lib" deserves the highest of praise as her name appeared regularly on our honor roll. She proved her ambitious spirit by also finding opportunity to work at Woolworth's during her spare time. We all wish you the greatest success "Lib" in your undertakings.

Beatrice Elizabeth McLaren

"Bee"

*"The dew that on the violet lies,
Mocks the dark lustre of thine eyes."*

"Belle of Barcelona" (2); Glee Club (1), (2).

"Bee," the life of every party, deserted us for one year, but discovered that she couldn't like the West so she came back to G. H. S. Her many friends welcomed her back with open arms. Her jolly disposition has gained her even more friends this past year, and it is with the greatest of regrets that they see her leave G. H. S. However, we know that wherever she goes she will gain many new friends and we all hope that she won't forget us. May you always have the best life can offer, "Bee"!

35 arrived to Arnold Filante

Anna Margaret McLellan

Anna

"Dear lovely bowers of innocence and ease."

Latin Club (4).

Anna McLellan is one of the quietest members of G. H. S., but throughout her High School career she has made and kept many staunch friends. Her name has appeared on the honor roll; she belongs to the Latin Club, and her four years have been spent profitably. Next September New Rochelle will welcome this prominent Senior. Good luck, Anna, and heartiest wishes for success.

Stanley Gordon Merriott

"Red"

"He is as merry as crickets."

Stanley is that red-headed boy who comes to us every morning on the bus from Millers Falls. "Red" doesn't say much about himself, but his friends say that he likes to act in plays. We also hear that he likes the fair sex, but we won't tell! "Red" is apparently undecided as to his future, but we know he will succeed in anything he attempts.

Helen Mary Metzler

Helen

"My crown is in my heart, not on my head."

Helen came to us at the beginning of this year from Bellows Falls. She says she likes G. H. S. very much indeed, and those of us who have become acquainted with her have found her a true friend. Helen is fond of sports, especially tennis, swimming, and skating. She is planning to go in training next year. Lucky patients, we'll say!

Muriel Theo Michelman

"Micky"

*"A smile for all, welcome glad
A carefree, jolly way she had."*

Class Basketball (1), (2), (3); Book-Week Play; Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); S. A. S. Collector (1), (2).

Who doesn't know "Micky" Michelman, that girl-friend with the curly hair who is always laughing and joking? "Micky" always welcomes a good time, but she also has time for other things. Basketball took up her time for the first three years, and she has also been a member of the Dramatic Club. Remember her as the girl friend in the Book-Week play? Muriel is planning to go to Highland Manor, New York, to school next year, and we know she will succeed.

Irene Josephine Moleski

Irene

"A good neighbor is a precious thing."

Typewriting Certificate; Spanish Club (2); Commercial Club (4).

Irene is one of G. H. S.'s quieter girls except when she is with Polly. And then! She and Polly have been seen together all through the four years of High School. Irene has belonged to both the Spanish and Commercial Clubs and has won the Royal certificate for typewriting. She is uncertain as to what she will do next year, but we all wish her the best of luck in whatever she undertakes.

-32 at Goodnow's

Lillian Eva Mooney

"Lil"

*"She is sweet and she is shy
But there's mischief in her eye."*

Dramatic Club (4); Public Speaking; Drawings for 1930 Year Book.

Lillian is one of G. H. S.'s artists. We all remember her drawings in last year's Year Book, but she has done other things besides drawing, for she belonged to the Dramatic Club and took part in the Junior Prize Speaking. "Lil" likes dancing and is partial to blonds. Never mind "Lil" we won't say any more. She is planning to go to Massachusetts Art School, and in the future we shall expect to see her drawings illustrating all the magazines.

Dorothy Dunton Morse

"Dot"

"They who are pleased, themselves must always please."

Commercial Club (4).

"Dot" and her pleasant manners, cute dimples, besides her numerous friends is one of the blonde queens of G. H. S. because of her charming personality which reigns over the merry parties which she has and attends. We were quite fortunate in having "Dot" stick to good old G. H. S. when her parents left town her Junior year.

Kieran Joseph Moylan

"Itish"

"Wit and Wisdom are born with a man."

Hockey (1), (2), (3); Baseball (2), (3), (4).

Kieran combined his fiery Irish ways with his excellent hockey. His scattering of witty remarks will make him greatly missed in classrooms. Punctuality is his word. "K" is another young man around town who finds plenty of time to devote to social affairs.

Anton Michael Mushovic

"Blondy"

"I laugh, for hope hath happy place with me."

Football (1), (2); Hi-Y (2), (3), (4); Treasurer (3).

A reliable chap — patient yet fun loving, merry yet quiet, silent yet friendly is Anton, with his good work on the football squad and clever foot work on the dance floor. Anton breaks many hearts because of his splendid physique and wavy blond hair, nevertheless, he seems to always be the center of attraction when it comes to the fellows.

Lawrence David Newhall

"Lonnie"

"The race by vigor, not by vaunts, is won."

Commercial Club (4).

"Lonnie" is a shy, silent, peace-loving man who toils diligently. "Lon" spends a great deal of his spare time working at the First National. We shall see, in time, our silent pal at the head of some large company. At any rate, whatever he undertakes, we feel sure he will be a great success.

Ruth Evelyn Newhall

"Rufus"

*"She is pretty to walk with, and witty to talk with,
And pleasant, too, to think on."*

Pro Merito; Class Basketball (3); Class Secretary (3); Vice-president (4); Student Council (3); S. A. S. Collector (4); French Club (4); Archery Club (4); Secretary (4); Secretary Pro Merito (4); Photograph Committee (4); Year Book Staff (4); Dance Committee (4).

Ruth is a fine student, a fine pal, and a fine girl. She possesses a cheerful disposition which joined with her keenness, good natured wit and attractive appearance, makes her extremely popular. She has numerous bids to house parties, but Dartmouth ranks first place in her heart. Ruth's name is always found on the honor roll. Miss Wheelock's is where she intends to put in time after graduation. To our lovable "Rufus" we wish the best.

Roy Gifford Newton

"Gift"

*"In framing an artist, Art hath thus deereed,
To make some good, but others to exceed."*

Spanish Club (2); Band (2), (3), (4); S. A. S. Collector (3).

Roy! Is there anyone who has not seen this tall, good-looking Senior in our corridors? Girls are his specialty, but they do not necessarily have to be inmates of G. H. S. — Turners has claimed quite a share of his attentions. His Ford has rumbled through the streets of Greenfield, and has served Roy in good stead when he was commuting from Lake Pleasant. He has made an ocean of firm friends, and G. H. S. wishes him the best o' luck at the electrical school which he is planning to attend.

Charles King Noyes

"Chuck"

"They who await no gifts from chancee have conquered fate."

Track (2), (3).

Who doesn't know "Chuck"? He's that wise-cracking boy of Room 17. If anyone is troubled with the blues, he should consult "Chuck," for he is the champion blues dispeller. For the past few years "Chuck" has been the best high jumper in G. H. S., and has helped to pile up points for Greenfield High School at the track meets. Although "Chuck" has not been active socially these four years, he has made a host of friends. What better test is there of a man?

Pauline Alice Ogonis

"Polly"

"True as the needle to the pole, or as the dial to the sun."

Typewriting Certificate; Spanish Club (2); Commercial Club (3), (4); Class Basketball (3).

Pauline Ogonis is a well-known commercial student of G. H. S. She was a member of the Commercial Club during her Junior and Senior years. In her Sophomore year she belonged to the Spanish Club. She greatly enjoys all sports, and during her Junior year she played on the Class Basketball Team. Pauline is very interested in Commercial subjects, and has won a typewriting award. She is still undecided as to where she will attend school for further study, but in whatever she undertakes her classmates of Greenfield High School wish her the best of luck.

Henry Peter Ozdarski

Henry

"An ounce of mirth is worth a pound of sorrow."

We have a professional printer in our midst. Henry hasn't had much time for school activities because of his interest in his work at the Recorder office. In spite of this fact he has always approved and cooperated with any activities the Senior Class has sponsored. He has been faithful in his studies and will always succeed in any task he undertakes.

Mary Abbie Page

Mary

"Merit is worthier than fame."

Mary came to G. H. S. from Roxbury Memorial High School, Boston, in her Sophomore year. She has shown much loyalty to our High School. Her quiet nature and ever present smile attract the attention of her classmates. She does not participate in any sports except motorcycle riding, which she thoroughly enjoys. Gymnastics is her forte and can she climb the rope? Well, I guess. Her future is somewhat hazy, as she has no intentions of continuing school next year. G. H. S. wishes her luck and happiness in the future.

Helen Celia Parzyck

132 Bryant & Stratton

Helen

"Lighter move the minutes edged with music."

Honor Roll; Typewriting Awards; "Exponent Annual"; "Pinafore" (3); Glee Club (3), (4); Orchestra (1), (2), (3), (4); Commercial Club (2), (4); Assembly Orchestra (4); N. E. Orchestra (2), (3).

Who doesn't know Helen, the G. H. S. "fiddler"? Can she fiddle! Helen has shown her talent in many ways while she has been in Greenfield High School. She has been in the school orchestra and the assembly orchestra, and was a member of the N. E. Orchestra during her second and third years. Helen has also been an active commercial student, winning awards in shorthand and typewriting. She plans to attend a commercial school next year, and we all know she'll make somebody a good secretary.

Avis Myrtle Payne

"Rusty"

"All who joy would win must share it,—happiness was born a twin."

Commercial Club (4); Typewriting Awards, Royal and Remington; Pro Merito Society (4).

Avis is that little girl with the sunny smile from Room 17. Her name has always appeared on the Honor Roll and she has the honor of being a Pro Merito student. Avis is always ready to help us in our work which we cannot understand. She has many certificates in Typewriting and Shorthand. Avis plans to work next year, and the class of '31 wishes her the best of luck.

Lillian Mary Poirier

Lillian

"Gently, as we sometimes glide through a quiet dream."

Glee Club (1); Operetta (1).

Lillian is one of our quiet commercial students. Lillian always has a cheerful smile for everyone and has a host of friends. We have seen this light-haired Senior talking to another Senior boy in the corridors. Never mind, Lillian, we won't say anything else about the boy friend. Besides her school work, Lillian has worked in Woolworth's during her spare time. Lillian's plans for the future are undecided.

Bessie Poulos

Bessie

"Sweet is the breath of morn."

Latin Club (4); Glee Club (1), (2); Pro Merito Society.

Bessie is one of the quiet little girls in the class of '31, but because of her sunny disposition and cheerful ways she has made many friends during her High School career. Bessie has studied very hard and her name has appeared on the honor roll several times. Bessie plans to attend Fitchburg Normal School next year.

Myron Larry Powers

"Skipper"

"Such joy ambition finds."

Who doesn't know Myron, the boy who is a famous cartoonist. Myron is always cheerful and full of fun. Besides doing his school work he has had time to work outside of school and has also had other interests (?). Myron plans to take up aviation on graduating. Hurry, Myron and get your pilot's license, because we are all anxious for a ride.

Burton Ossie Prouty

"Burt"

"In every deed of mischief he had a heart to resolve."

Burton is the tiny boy, always the center of his "gang," witty, mischievous and well-liked. When classes begin to drag "Burt" is always on deck to cheer them up with a brilliant remark or some comical performances. His hobby seems to be disorder. As yet, "Burt" is undecided as to his future, but we know he'll succeed without any trouble.

Helen Agnes Prysby

"Pris"

"Nothing is worth doing, unless it is worth doing well."

Typewriting Awards; Commercial Club (2), (4).

Who's the champion "soda-jerker" of G. H. S.? Why, "Pris," of course. She not only enjoys putting up ice creams and sodas, but likes to eat them as well. And does she like football? Just ask her. When Helen does a thing, she puts a lot of pep behind it. We sometimes wonder how Helen can put so much time into jerking soda and still get her studying done so well. She has not decided which school she will go to yet. Lots o' luck, "Pris."

Alice Elizabeth Pulaski

"Al"

*"Some bold adventurers disdain
The limits of their little reign
And unknown regions dare deserv."*

Commercial Club, Vice-president (4); Dramatic Club (4).

Undoubtedly Alice is one of the liveliest members of the Senior class. Everywhere you go you can hear her cheery laugh or her carefree joking. There isn't anything that can compel Alice to be serious. It just can't be done! Well, Alice, G. H. S. will miss your jollity next year, but some school will be glad to welcome you. Here's to your future!

Blanche Caroline Pydych

Hairdresser at Evelyn's

"P. D."

"All are not saints who go to church."

Archery Club (4).

Blanche is the shortest girl in our class. Although she is one of those people who has little to say, we know she must have "great big" thoughts in her tiny head, and high ambitions, also. Since you have not yet told us what you intend to do next year, we all wish you success, Blanche, in the superlative degree.

Evelyn Louise Rice

Evelyn

"She says little but thinks much."

Commercial Club.

Evelyn came to G. H. S. in her Sophomore year from South Deerfield High School. She has taken interest in commercial work, and plans to attend the Commercial School at Greenfield. Although she is very quiet and usually by herself, she has shown a great deal of interest in our High School, and has become well known among her classmates. All of her fellow students wish her the best of luck in her commercial studies and hope to see her soar in her endeavors.

Pauline Maria Ruggeri

Pauline

"As well out of the world as out of fashion."

Commercial Club (4).

Pauline Ruggeri in her Freshman year won typewriting honors. She is also a member of the present Commercial Club of G. H. S. No particular sport appeals to her, but she just loves dancing and has many girls envious of her unusual grace. Pauline is of a jolly and mischievous disposition which has gained her many friends "at home and abroad." She is yet undecided as to the future, but we wish her the best of luck.

Catherine Mary Scannell

"Kay"

"Anything but history, for history must be false."

Look for someone small of stature but bubbling over with friendliness and you will have "Kay" Scannell. For though she has done her best to convince us she actually has grown up, she hasn't reached the six foot mark yet. Cheer up, "Kay"! There's no need to tell her that for she always has a smile and a friendly word for all of her acquaintances. "Kay" says she hopes to dance her way to success, and we're sure that if she keeps on the way she's started she'll surely reach there. Cheerio, "Kay"!

William Hermanus Schotte

"Scotty"

"A handful of common sense is worth a bushel of learning."

Spanish Club (3).

A tall, lanky frame, a friendly smile, lively eyes, and a student's gaze — they all belong to "Bill," otherwise known as "Scotty." "Scotty" is of rather a quiet nature, but he has made many friends in his high school life, through his never ending good humor. Though he has been inclined to take life easy where books are concerned, he is a great thinker, and we know he will be successful in life. Good luck!

at Bay Path

Paul Frederick Schrader

Paul

"The thoroughly great are those who do everything thoroughly."

Honor Roll (2), (3); Typewriting Awards (3), (4).

Paul is that very, very quiet lad with the dark hair and nice complexion. Maybe the reason why he is so quiet is that he may accomplish something. In fact we know it is, because he was on the honor roll, and who dares question his ability with the typewriter?

1932 Northampton Commercial

James Francis Sheehan

"Jimmie"

"Everyone cannot help but like this chap."

We find mixed with Jimmie's virtues, several weaknesses—Chemistry, English, History, and girls. In fact girls are quite a serious weakness. In typewriting and at other commercial subjects he is a whizz. "Jimmie" has done his best for the class of 1931 and we wish him success in whatever he undertakes.

"Ve"

Viola Stefie Simondisky

"And had a face like a blessing."

Remington Typewriting Award (3); Commercial Club (4).

Viola is the cute little blonde who comes to Greenfield every morning on the Millers Falls bus. Although she is silent and shy, we all know that "Ve" is amiable, humorous, and sweet. Consequently, she has many friends. Her hobby seems to be dancing and then she has interests in Turners. She is undecided about her career but good luck to you, "Ve."

Marion Estelle Smith

Marion

"Many daughters have done virtuously, but you excel them all."

Pro Merito (4); Year Book Staff (4); Latin Club (4); French Club (4).

Marion has only been with us about a year, but in that time she has proved her ability. She seems to be able to work constantly and untiringly. Furthermore, she extracts a great deal of pleasure from her work, which is an art in itself. She has made her English class more enjoyable by her originality, and this trait seems to make itself evident in all her activities. It is a stepping stone to success, and the class of '31 sends their best wishes along with Marion to Massachusetts State.

1932 First nail
Bank

"Chet"

Chester Joseph Sobieski

"A youth to whom was given so much of earth, and just so much of heaven."

Honor Roll (2), (4); Hi-Y Club (4); Spanish Club (2).

Surely no other fellow can surpass "Chet" in amiability, kindness, and good humor. He is the reason for the statement that all good things come in small packages. "Chet" is a prime favorite with boys and girls alike, for you can always depend on him. His plans for the future are hazy, but here's hoping for his success.

Esther Mae Spat

"Spat"

"No pleasure endures unseasoned by variety."

Honor Roll; Commercial Club (2), (4); Class Basketball (2), (3), (4); Tennis (1), (2), (3); Archery (4); Typewriting Awards.

Everyone knows Esther. She is one of those upon whom you can always depend. If Esther makes a promise you can be sure she will keep it. She takes great interest in sports, including horseback riding and miniature golf. However, sports are not all that interest Esther, for there is Deerfield to be considered, and also certain places in Vermont.

Blanche Mary Stabelek

"Bud"

"A good reputation is more valuable than money."

Honor Roll; Typewriting Awards; O.G.A. Pin (4); Commercial Club (4); Spanish Club (2).

Blanche does not like to say much, but that pleasant smile of hers takes the place of many words. She has many friends, for she keeps all those she makes. She likes to have good times, but her lessons do not go unprepared. Blanche has not decided what she will do next year, but we know she'll be successful in whatever she undertakes.

Clarence Shepard Strecker

"Bud"

"Man is his own star, and that soul that can be honest is the only perfect man."

Track Manager (4); Senior Play "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy"; "Gypsy Rover"; Hi-Y Club (1), (2), (3); Secretary (4); Glee Club (1), (2), (3); Band (2); Orchestra (1), (2), (3); Dramatic Club (4); Silver G. Club (4); Class Basketball (1), (2), (3).

Enter the entomologist! Didn't you think he made an excellent absent-minded prof? And do you wonder that he caused the hearts of the O'Maras to beat just a wee bit faster? But then, he was unusually well fitted for that part. Don't tell anyone, but he's actually been heard talking in his sleep (He sometimes recites in class, you know.) Never mind, Clarence, we'll stand up for you any time and in any place.

Marian Martha Sullivan

"Sully"

"Boldly ventured is half won."

Exponent (2), (3); Spanish Club (2); Commercial Club (1), (3), (4); Secretary (4); Glee Club (4).

Who doesn't know "Sully"? No one can miss that cheery "hello" of hers. "Sully" always seems to be in a hurry. She has had many interesting experiences during her High School career. A certain boy can tell you why "Sully" has been acting "that way" lately. Guess why? "Sully's" presence has given cheerfulness to G.H.S. for four years. May her associates always be as fortunate.

Edmond Francis Tetreault

In business with father
"Ed"

"Sports went hand in hand with science."

Basketball (1); Football (2), (3), (4), Captain (4); Silver G. Club; Student Council (4); Band (1), (2), (3), (4), President (4); Orchestra (1), (2), (3), (4); G.H.S. Syncopators (4); N. E. Festival Orchestra (2), (3); Hi-Y (4); Baseball (4).

Here's a versatile youth! Just look at that list of activities! But "Ed" is a big boy—he needs a big list. Whenever you hear a big noise, whether it's on the athletic field, in the band or orchestra, or even, we fear, in the classroom, "Tait" will be there. "Ed" is always going places and doing things, but through it all, he has made the honor roll every year. We know he'll keep up the good record at Deerfield Academy next year.

Thelma May Thayer

"Thel"

*"As I am true to thee and thine,
Do thou be true to me and mine."*

Thelma has four weaknesses—Chemistry, chewing gum, pink-slips, and—but we won't give you away "Thel." Whether the first three are in anyway connected—well, we can guess. Thelma was always ready and willing to give us any help or information we wanted, and we sincerely wish her the top-notch of success in whatever she may undertake.

Donald Frederick Thurlow

"Don"

"Go forth under the open sky and list to Nature's teachings."

Football (4); Baseball (2), (3), (4); Hi-Y Club (4).

"Don" is one of the quietest boys in the class of 1931. He is very much interested in the out-of-doors and spends most of his time studying nature. He is known by everyone for his bird talks, and he has many friends besides his out-of-door friends. We know that he will succeed in every undertaking, and the Class of 1931 wishes him the best of luck.

Alma Ruth Tirrell

working for her father

Alma

*"Happy am I; from care I'm free
Why aren't they all contented like me?"*

Certificate on Remington, Commercial Club (4).

We haven't heard very much from Alma, but we all know who she is. Perhaps she believes that children should be seen and not heard! "A" is an ambitious girl. Whenever she starts a thing it's sure to be finished. Keep it up, Alma, and you'll get there, even though you say now that you don't know where you're headed.

Mary Elizabeth Togneri

Mary

"Why can't they all be happy like me?"

O. G. A. Certificate; Commercial Club (4).

Mary is that shy little girl with the big brown eyes, who entered our class during the Junior year. She previously went to school at Turners Falls. However, she says that she likes Greenfield High very much, especially the Commercial Club. Mary has not yet decided what she will do after graduation, but we wish her the best of luck in the coming years.

Clayton Osborne Totman

Clayton

"To know how to hide one's ability is great skill."

Football, tackle and guard (3), (4); Hi-Y Club (4).

Clayton is the only person who has been brave enough to appear in a combination suit of his own on St. Patrick's day. He has made many friends in G. H. S., especially on the football team. He is interested in athletics and some day will find him famous along that line. We know that he will always succeed, and the Class of '31 speeds on wishing him luck.

Samuel Tullio

Samuel

"They that govern make the least noise."

Science Club (2).

Sam Tullio has stayed out of the limelight during his High School career. We seldom see him in school after school hours. However, he is a good sport, and has many friends among the other fellows of his class. He enjoys making dull classes lively.

Kenneth Bartlett Waide

"Kenny"

"Personality is the keynote of success."

President of Class (3), (4); Student Council (3), (4); Cheer Leader (4); Hi-Y (3), (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4), President (4); Band (2), (4); Orchestra (1), (4); Assembly Orchestra (2), (3), (4); "Pinafore"; "Pepita"; "The Red Owl"; Senior Play, "The Managers"; "The Boob"; First in Junior Prize Speaking, Dance Committee.

Kenneth Waide, President of the Senior class, has been an invaluable member of it. He was an efficient chairman of the dance committee, worked hard in the Dramatic Club of which he was President this year, and took an important part in the Senior Play, and did it all to perfection. "Kenny's" talents are not limited to the purely dramatic, as he is musically inclined. He plays and sings and has been in school operettas for several years. "Kenny" is known to his classmates as one of the most sociable members of the class. His personality draws friends, and his consideration keeps them. "Kenny" wants to study music, and the Class of '31 wishes him the best of luck.

Alice Elizabeth Walters

"Al"

"We are charmed by neatness of person."

"Gypsy Rover" (1); "Belle of Barcelona" (2); "Pinafore" (3); Latin Club (4); Glee Club (1), (2), (3), (4); Senior Dance Committee (4).

Alice is that attractive blonde who always has a pleasant smile and a cheery "hello" for everyone. During her Senior year Alice has been an efficient member of the Dance Committee, and everyone knows that much of their success is due to her efforts. We have enjoyed having Alice among us and wish her every success in the world.

"Ev"

Evelyn Mildred Webster

"I laugh for hope hath happy place with me."

Evelyn is that very attractive girl who came to us from Turners during her Sophomore year. She believes, as many of us do, that learning is all right in its place. She is liked by all for she is a true friend and a jolly good scout. At most of the school dances she is seen, for dancing is one of her hobbies. And then too, Dartmouth is her favorite college. "Ev" is undecided as to her future, but we all wish her the best of luck.

Ernest Alphonse Wedge

"Professor"

"Man is nothing but contradiction."

Pro Merito (4); Exponent Staff (2), (3), Business Manager (4); Senior Play (4); Business Manager of Year Book (4); Hi-Y (3), (4); Glee Club (1), (2), (3), (4); Silver G. (3), (4); Latin Club (4); Debating Club (4); French Club (1), (2), (4); Dramatic Club (4).

Ernest, better known as "Professor" because of his ability as a teacher of others, has made a name among us all. He is one of G. H. S.'s best orators and has taken part in many activities during his High School career. He is very conscientious about his school work and is known as a hard worker. We wish him the best of luck next year.

132 Mass State

Elwyn Charlock Weld

"Elwyn"

"A decent boldness ever meets with friends."

Elwyn is known to the students of G. H. S. for his love of the out-of-doors. He is seen around school on a motorcycle with which he is very daring. He has hosts of friends in G. H. S. and although he does not participate in many activities he is very popular. Elwyn is a woman hater, but perhaps it won't take a year to change his mind. Never mind Elwyn we will still back you.

James Elgin Wheeler

"Jimmy"

"Staunch and fearless he faces the world."

Science (1), (2), (3), (4); Archery (4).

We are all acquainted with "Jimmy" and his smile. He is the boy who is so fond of woodwork. He has not tried to be a social climber, but has made many true friends. Then, too, who has not heard about the motorcycle on which the Indian rode down to the shore to meet the Pilgrims? Good luck, old boy, and take care of that motorcycle.

Elizabeth Whitbeck

"Lib"

"A cheerful life is what the muses love."

"Lib" hasn't entered into many activities in High School except dances. She is seen at all of these with her most important activity. Just ask her about him! It seems that in her time here she devoted herself mostly to art so of course we expect some day to hear from her in a big way in circles of art. Best of luck, "Lib."

Ella May Widdison

Ella

*"Her heart is like a garden fair
Where many pleasant blossoms grow."*

Typewriting awards on Remington and Royal; Class Basketball (3); Commercial Club (4).

All through her school life no one could ask for a better friend than Ella. With a smile and a cheery "hello" she has greeted everyone. No wonder she is so well liked by all, whether they know her well or only slightly. It is hard to think of Ella as anything but a success. Just a smile, Ella, and the world will be yours.

Pauline May Witty

"Polly"

*"Tall of stature, fair of grace
Among our girls she holds her place."*

Pro Merito; Class Basketball (2), (3); Year Book Committee (4); "Bargains in Cathay" (3); "The Travelers" (3); Senior Play; "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" (4); "The Managers" (4); Dramatic Club (2), (3), (4); Secretary and Treasurer (3), (4); Archery (4); Latin Club (4); French Club (4); Student Council (2).

Pauline is one of the tallest members in our class, but in spite of that fact she has given the valedictorian some keen competition. "Polly" is well known for her ability as a leader and actress. She has established a firm friendship among the members of the Senior Class. May she continue to make friends in the future as she has in the past.

Eleanor Johnson Wright

"El"

*"Hang sorrow; care will kill a cat;
Therefore, let's be merry."*

Eleanor is very charming. It is very easy to strike up a conversation with her, which always proves enjoyable, for she has so many interesting things to say. That ringing laugh helps make Eleanor even more attractive. The upper part of Davis Street holds an attraction for her, but we won't tell what it is. Eleanor has chosen Becker College for her alma mater next year.

President's Address

PARENTS, Teachers, and Friends: I am proud to have the honor to welcome you to these exercises of the Class of 1931. It will be my privilege and pleasure to introduce to you my various classmates who will address you this afternoon. Among these are some who have attained remarkably high scholastic standing during their high school careers, the Valedictorian and the Salutatorian; others who have been chosen by popular vote by their classmates; and still others who have been chosen by the members of the faculty.

Classmates:

Four years ago we entered this school as Freshmen, being acquainted with comparatively few of our classmates and members of the faculty. The ways of the school were strange to us and for a time we wandered along, giving most of our attention to studying. As the years have passed we have made numerous acquaintances through our social and scholastic relationships.

Many have ventured into athletic, musical, commercial and various other phases of school work, and in all associations have made numerous friendships which will never be entirely forgotten. Those who have earnestly and conscientiously endeavored to do their best have received credit through awards and honors.

Now we are about to leave these happy scenes and acquaintances to plunge into fields of widespread activities. However, we should strive incessantly to attain success in Life, constantly applying the knowledge we have gained from our high school careers. When years have passed and high achievements have been reached, we may look back with no small pleasure and happiness upon these friendships we now enjoy.

May we all be successful, and in our activities never fail to apply the motto which has, thus far, helped us so much and is well worth remembering: Loyalty, Honor, and Scholarship.

*Kenneth B. Waide,
President 1931*

Salutatory and Essay

PARENTS, Teachers, and Friends: In behalf of the graduating Class of 1931 I do sincerely welcome you to our Class Day exercises. We all realize the part that you, our parents, have played to make possible our appearance here today. Accept our gratitude and appreciation. And to you, our instructors, who, forever patient, have faithfully worked to build up a standard upon which we may base our future conduct, to you we hope to show our indebtedness by developing the best that is in us. To all of you who have encouraged us to continue in spite of the failures we have encountered, we extend a cordial greeting.

Making The American Flag One's Own

Every citizen of the United States has the right to call the Stars and Stripes his own. The flag is the glory of the Republic. It distinguishes the United States of America from other countries whose flags arouse the same patriotic feelings in their citizens as the Red, White, and Blue does in Americans.

America has two types of citizens who owe allegiance to its flag—the native and the foreign born. The native born citizen, unlike the foreign born, does not have to adopt new ideas or new ways of living to own his flag. It is his by birth, and as he passes from one stage of life to another, he is being taught the American ideals and all that helps to make him a creditable citizen of his country through careful home-training and environments.

The foreign born citizen has an immense task to complete before he may rightfully obtain citizenship. He leaves his native shore and the flag he was taught to obey. He may come for a change of climate for his poor health. Becoming attached to America the Beautiful he decides to remain and obtain citizenship. Or the lust for adventure may lure him into this vast land of various thrills and excitements in the East, West, North, or South. Or, finally, as is most frequently the case, hard conditions at home fill him with the desire of coming to the land of opportunity generously laid open for such as he. When he first reaches the alluring shores of longed-for America, he is somewhat stunned by the confusion of things. The voyage itself has been wearing, and the twenty-four hour stay at Ellis Island was sufficient to drive him to despair. Only his unwavering hope of a promising future can keep him from retracing his course across the ocean.

Eventually he is here safe and sound—and satisfied—in a strange land struggling with a strange language. It is an arduous task for him to learn a new language when he is beyond school age. But even so, a child can have his difficulties. When I was learning the English language, I made quite a serious mistake in relating an incident. Instead of saying "I got lost," I said, "I went wild." Now, I can laugh at my error, but then I could not see it. Nevertheless, it is amazing in how short a time the foreigner can learn to speak English. Of course, to accomplish this he must devote his heart and mind not only to the language, but to the manners and customs as well. A year spent thus will make him feel almost secure as to his manners and speech.

By this time the foreigner is beginning to prosper. Now it would be very easy for him to forget to thank someone for his happiness and success within reach. To whom must he turn with gratitude? To his benefactress, the United States of America. Here is the test of what kind of citizen he will become. Generous America put him on his feet. In return he owes her a debt that he can never half repay. But, what he can do is to give ardently life-long service to his adopted country that so liberally helped him.

By this time he has obtained his citizenship which means more to him than anything else in the world. It is not like an award he has worked for, and ends there, but it is a symbol of what he is to do hereafter, to call himself rightfully a citizen of the United States of America.

From now on he may take his stand beside the native born citizen and work hand in hand with him. The same flag now protects them both. No one who has not had a similar experience can know what that means. We foreign born feel that we have accomplished the greatest thing when each one of us may take his rightful stand by an equal, ardent American born citizen and fervently say, "I pledge allegiance to my flag."

The Art of Reading

WHEN the subject of reading is proffered the question frequently arises "Why do I read?" If I were to speak of the many attitudes of the many readers toward reading, I should talk for many hours, since there are just as many attitudes as there are readers.

Some read to learn. They approach a book from the standpoint of study, while others read for amusement and consider a book an enjoyable pastime. There are those who read to experience new fields of life and to let their imaginations wander about in limitless regions. Some read to be drawn nearer reality in life, while others read because they have a deep curiosity about human nature, its habits, and customs. Again there are those who read simply to see what various conclusions they can draw from the novel, poem, play, or essay, as the case may be, and often these ideas are entirely different from those which the author had in mind. Some read for the action and others for the thoughts introduced. Finally, some read simply because they feel they must have an outlet for their taut nerves and deem reading a necessity.

Of the last type was Francis Bacon, who evidently considered reading as essential as eating, for he is quoted as saying, "Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed and some few are to be chewed and digested." In my opinion these should be the three predominating standards of reading; to taste, which represents the deduction of the prime factors of a story or book, to swallow, which represents the realization of the true worth of any type of literature, and to chew and digest, representing the deep study of literary works, which is not so common a mode as the first two. However, it is just as essential a mode to practice for it is this type which develops further the study of history, biology, chemistry and of many other sciences, and often poetry.

Let us take the world-renowned story of "Little Red Riding Hood." When, as children we read this fable, we accept it at its literal worth, that is, we do not study the implied lessons of the story but simply consider the stated facts of the narrative. Later in life we realize what dangers the wolf represents as he blocks the path of the innocent one, and we can easily discover the moral of the tale. This represents the idea of tasting literature, for the child does not detect the implied teachings in the story, but gleans the facts only.

When the Freshmen enter High School, among the first literary compositions they attack is "Silas Marner" by George Eliot. They select the complications, the rising and falling actions, the climax and the outcome. This work illustrates swallowing the context of the book.

As these underclassmen advance, they swallow more and more knowledge until, when they join the dignified rank in the fourth year of their High School career, they begin to chew and digest literary brain food. During their Senior year they have to chew and chew hard when they begin to study history, chemistry, and parts of English such as the compounded philosophy and imagination in "Macbeth" and the arguments of Burke in his speech on "Conciliation with the Colonies." However, there are few Seniors who can boast of actually digesting every particle of these books no matter how hard they use their mental molars.

In choosing the food for our literary diet, we naturally choose that which is most pleasing to our individual palates, and from the many appetizing types of literature each one of us should be able to select one which suits his own taste. There is the novel for those among us who enjoy the lighter side of life, the essay and oration for those who enjoy reading about ideas and thoughts of others, the biography and autobiography for those who delight in the deeds, hardships and triumphs of noted personages, the drama for those who enjoy actors and acting, the poem for those who delve in rhythm and rhyme, and lastly, travel and history, especially that of our own United States of America which, all of us have to admit, we are interested in.

Of all the types of literature the novel is, by far, the oldest and most popular. As far back as the days of prehistoric man, there was such a thing as a novel. Of course, it wasn't printed, but after each and every hunt or adventure, these ancient men gathered around the fire and listened to the most imaginative, most impressive and most thrilling speaker of the tribe, as he told of the experiences with the wild beasts or with their barbaric enemies. Always these stories had their hero, and it wasn't long before some of the men began to paint these happenings on rocks and in caves where they could be easily seen and discerned. Thus the novel began.

Almost everyone knows what a short story is and how popular it has become in the last few years in our great magazine publications. Perhaps it will interest you to know that there are about one thousand stories written each month, making twelve thousand per year. Of these, eleven thousand eight hundred are, perhaps, not worthy of publication; yet there is some teaching in each one, for as it has often been said, the poorest of stories is like a leaky boat on a lake of wisdom, for through the chinks, learning is bound to seep.

Another important type of literature is biography, which has become extremely popular the last few years. Biography is a personality revealer. It minutely describes the subject's characteristics, ideas, deeds, and habits; it criticises as well as praises and, as Robert Hall has well expressed, "Of all the species of literary composition perhaps biography is the most delightful. In no other kind of writing are we permitted to scrutinize the character so exactly, or to form so just and accurate an estimate of the excellences and defects, the lights and shades, the blemishes and beauties of an individual."

Poetry, or word-music, began in the Pelasgic ages with sacred hymns, festal odes, and heroic legends. To gain favor with the gods, bards were engaged to sing at all affairs, whether religious or gala, and by inspiring his listeners toward religion and warfare, the bard proved himself a true poet. It is this same feeling of inspiring enthusiasm in their readers that influences the modern poets such as Edgar Lee Masters, Christopher Morley and Edgar A. Guest to write about the material things in life and those nearest and dearest to the modern individual.

Not only do the mentioned types of literature appeal to our natures, but they offer much that many of us could never receive other than through reading.

Through our reading we obtain a knowledge of the world and its people from the countries in the far east to those in the western hemisphere and from one pole to the other. We learn of the happenings, the history, and habits of these regions and peoples. We learn of the advancement of mankind from the beginning of time, down through the ages to the present day. We are given various outlooks on life; we are offered better understanding of human nature, and we are helped to see the beauty in the common things in life; our vocabularies are enlarged, and above all we are aided in mastering our native tongue with its peculiarities in spelling and its many idioms.

Due to the training received in the grammar and high schools, we American boys and girls are very well prepared to appreciate good reading and good literature. That we, through-out our lives, may live up to this high standard let us heed well the teachings of these two famous and frequently quoted sayings, "Books are teachers whose instructions are unaccompanied by blows or harsh words, and who demand neither food nor wages. You visit them, and they are alert; if you want them, they do not secret themselves; nor do they ridicule your ignorance, be it ever so gross," by de Bury, and the anonymous saying,

"Books are keys to wisdom's treasures,
Books are keys to lands of pleasures,
Books are paths that upward lead,
Books are friends,
Come Let Us Read."

Ruth A. Markley

Before It Is Too Late

*"And we'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne."*

WHEN Robert Burns penned those words for the first time, he gave the world a message which has since been set to music and sung in every land under the sun. He renewed the message which was uttered on Calvary's heights over one thousand nine hundred years ago — the message which is in every heart — the message of love!

Yet, in our life today we sometimes forget the ideals of love, consideration and kindness which our mothers and our grandmothers taught us but a short time ago. We rush on in our busy way and cause many needless pains and hurts when a little thought could have made us happy the whole day long and saved some one else a hurt which, perhaps, will never be forgotten.

If anyone were to ask you what you thought of a man or woman who would overlook a chance to save a man from drowning or bleeding to death, you would immediately say that he was a coward, a person bereft of sense or a heartless wretch. Yet every day you shun opportunity after opportunity to help someone else carry his burden. Every day you no doubt pass some old man or young child, as you go to your office or store, whom you never salute or recognize. I wonder if all the heartless wretches or insanely proud people are to be found in the group who deliberately refuse to aid a drowning man?

In France there are a great many graves of the boys who never came back — the graves of those who died that you and I might be here on this day to celebrate the completion of the high school education of another group. Here, today, there are no doubt many who have a close friend, a brother, a sister, or a father in those graves. Perhaps even now you can see him as he was when he answered the call of God and of country — he in his khaki suit, carrying his Springfield and marching along so proudly with those millions of other young men who fought and died in the last war in order that liberty might reign over all; she in her immaculate white uniform that, you dear mothers, helped her make; that uniform with the little red cross — the symbol of sisterly kindness — going out to the ship which was to take her to the scenes of suffering and death — to the scene which took her away from you. Aren't you glad to know that France is willingly keeping those graves in the best of condition as an act of gratitude and kindness toward those who did so much for her? Do you feel grateful for that act of love which a foreign nation is rendering to your loved ones?

Judge Leon McCord tells of his old friend who was also a judge. He says that one day this other man and he went down to watch some men salvage the driftwood which was borne along the swollen Mississippi. While watching, his companion said, "This is the duty of everyone — to save driftwood." However, this judge did not waste his words on theories or ideals, but put to practice what he believed. Thus it was that, when a young man who had been committed to a penitentiary for some felony, pleaded for a parole in order that he might enter this last great war, he was granted his request. Before the ex-convict came back, the old judge had gone to the Great Beyond. However, this boy came back and thanked Judge McCord as the representative and friend of this now-dead exemplar of charity. Judge McCord says that when he looked at the clean, straight, healthy boy with the stripe for being wounded and a medal for bravery he thought of his dead friend and realized that his protestations against this parole had been wrong — that the "salvager of driftwood" had known best when he gave that boy a chance. Then the Judge asks a question which could be asked in Greenfield as well as in any other place: "Do we try to save driftwood?" "Are we thoughtful of others?"

At the Hi-Y Convention in Lynn last December a man, who had traveled a great deal, told this story — the story of the kindness of one real man to another. An old Indian Witch-Doctor had been asked if his medicine always worked — if it was omnipotent. The reply had been in the negative, and the old Indian had told how he once carried an Indian companion to a little town but a short 400 miles away and how by this act the life of his companion had been saved by the prompt action of the white doctor stationed there. When asked if he realized how far he had carried his friend, he replied: "How far? Me no know. Me know he was my friend." When you think of the fact that his friend's life was saved, do you think that act of kindness was to no avail?

In a local hospital the other day an old lady was full of glee. She had received so many letters, so many flowers. Her friends had not forgotten her. She was not alone! Today that same old lady has been borne to rest. However, her face, when she went to meet her Maker, bore a smile which surprised her friends when they came to pay their last respects. What had caused this smile, they ask? The answer comes wafted back on the breezes of gentleness — consideration. She had died happy because her son had not forgotten his old mother. A simple letter and yet she was able to say "adieu" without a tear. She knew that she had not been forgotten and was thus enabled to sink into the calm sleep from which she never wakened. Was the time spent in writing that letter, in doing one little deed of kindness — was that time wasted?

There are so many and such an unending number of little things which make life worth while that they cannot be mentioned here because of time — the salute on the street, the visiting of the sick, the smile when you feel like frowning, the harsh retort never uttered, the penny given little Tommy, the flowers sent, the encouragement given. All these and many more would make us so happy and bring so much sunshine into the life of another — little things that aren't worth the trouble to mention and, it seems, worth the time to do, and yet they mean so much to others — they have such a power of bringing happiness.

Mr. George Griffith has said so much in so little space that I should like to beg your indulgence one moment more while I quote his message which is entitled, "Before It Is Too Late."

"If you have a gray-haired mother
In the old home far away,
Sit you down and write the letter,
You put off from day to day.
Don't wait until her weary steps
Have reached Heaven's Pearly Gate,
But show her that you think of her,
Before it is too late.
If you have a tender message,
Or a loving word to say,
Don't wait until you've forgotten it,
But whisper it today.
Who knows what bitter memories,
May haunt you if you wait?
So make your loved one happy,
Before it is too late.
The tender word unspoken,
The letters never sent,
The long-forgotten messages,
The wealth of love unspent.
For these some hearts are breaking,
For these some loved ones wait.
Show them that you think of them,
Before it is too late."

History of the Class of 1931

Place: A Bookstore.

Time: 1941.

BOOKSELLER: Anything I can do for you, ma'am?

Customer: Why, yes. I'm looking for something interesting — something I always tried to find for book reports in High School."

B.S.: Right this way ma'am. Here is a book by an old classmate of mine, "Greenfield As I Remember It," by Bliss.

Cus.: Bliss, Bliss. That name sounds familiar. You don't mean, by any chance, Sheldon Bliss of Greenfield High School. Wasn't he in the Class of 1931?

B.S.: Why, yes. Sheldon Bliss led the class in our Freshman year as President, with Louise Causebrook as Vice-president. (pause) You can't, by any chance, be Louise Causebrook?

Cus.: Yes — but —. Are you "Bill" Blake? For goodness' sake, "Bill" it's been ages since we've seen each other. How have you been?

B.S.: Just as foolish as ever. Will you ever forget the times that the upperclassmen sent us to Room 4, and upon looking, it couldn't be found because it wasn't in existence?

Cus.: Speaking of our green Freshman year, who were the persons with the title of Secretary and Treasurer?

B.S.: Let me see. — My brain is cloudy. — I can't recall, but we should be able to find it in this book. Here it is — Mildred Jarvis as Secretary and Anton Mushovic as Treasurer.

Cus.: Have you heard anything about Greenfield lately? Do they still have the Franklin County fairs?

B.S.: Certainly. Do you remember that the fair was the only place where we could yell and cheer with the best of them.

Cus.: Didn't we win some prizes for our efforts?

B.S.: In our first, second, and fourth years we won the cheering cup, and the Track banner in our third and fourth years.

Cus.: Those were gala holidays we looked forward to, and our records were something to be proud of.

B.S.: We became intimately acquainted with the school, for the first time, at the Freshman Hop given to us by the Sophomores.

Cus.: Anton Mushovic and Paul Looney were the only shining lights in our class as far as Football and Baseball were concerned.

B.S.: Amid the horrors of mixing exam periods, we struggled through them and found ourselves Sophomores. But little did we realize that the name meant "wise fools."

Cus.: When we came back in the fall, Class elections absorbed most of our attention. Now, who were the class officers? (Looks at index of book.) Page 35. Here they are — Paul Looney, "Bea" LeBaron, Mildred Jarvis, Clinton Bernard, and Elizabeth McGrath.

B.S.: Oh! The Freshman Hop! Didn't the surprised infants sit up and take notice when we invited them to that glorious party. Refreshments were served, and a good time was had by all!

Cus.: What would Football have done without Anton Mushovic and Baseball without Paul Looney? Other than that, the year was uneventful.

B.S.: And then, by the Grace of Heaven, the faculty, and Mr. E. B. Smith we found ourselves jolly Juniors.

Cus.: The Junior Class officers were, President John Starie, —

B.S.: No, that's wrong. Ken Waide was President.

Cus.: You're wrong. Absolutely wrong! It was John Starie.

B.S.: All right. Don't bite me. Look it up in the book.

Cus.: Listen. (Finds page and reads.) "John Starie entered the Greenfield High School in the Class of 1932. During the summer vacation he completed work equivalent to one year and a half, entering the Class of 1931 in its Junior year." Now, wasn't I right?

B.S.: Well, well. Rave on MacDuff and see what came next.

Cus.: "He was soon forced to leave for Amherst, New Hampshire. Kenneth Waide then filled the President's chair. Other Class officers were John Bouker, Mary Gorey, Ruth Newhall, and Willard Ballou."

B.S.: Well, that makes the score tied one to one. Now continue the history of the greatest class ever to enter the Greenfield High School.

Cus.: "During the Football season someone was over age, and he was lost to the team for the season."

B.S.: Correct. It was Anton Mushovic. This put the team on a slight decline, but it enjoyed a good season just the same.

Cus.: "Eddie" Tetreault and that quiet little Clayton Totman upheld the Class honors in Football.

B.S.: Speaking of upholding things, wasn't it Muriel Michelman who spilled cocoa down the back of a Senior girl in the cafeteria?

Cus.: She probably hasn't forgotten that either. It seems to me that the girls had a good Basketball team during the winter months, for they lost only one game.

B.S.: Elsie Allen, Mildred Jarvis, and Eleanor Henrich were the shining maidens from our Class.

Cus.: Let's consult our little book and see what the Band did. Ah ha — I thought so. We went to Waltham and brought back two cups.

B.S.: Didn't the Band go to Pawtucket soon after that? I'll bet that trip was one grand spree also.

Cus.: Right! Well, for one thing, one of the underclassmen fell asleep in the middle of the aisle, and the only way to get from one end of the bus to the other was to step on him.

B.S.: I believe that you were one of the musicians to be sick.

Cus.: Yes,—on bananas, with a little sun and heat to make it more effective! But we brought home a cup just the same.

B.S.: Prize "Screeching" was next on the program. "Ken" Waide won the boy's prize by going back a few minutes to his childhood days. Lonita Harlow walked off with the girl's prize.

Cus.: How well I remember that. —"Then came the dawn" and we were Seniors.

B.S.: Then — according to this book our Class officers were: "Ken" Waide, Willard Ballou, Ruth Newhall, Mildred Jarvis, and Paul Looney.

Cus.: After Class elections, our attentions were drawn to the Senior play "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy." Out of the scramble of try-outs "Phil" Galbraith and "Peg" Connors were awarded the leads.

B.S.: "Peg" really never quite recovered, and Clarence Strecker spent most of his time catching and dissecting spiders.

Cus.: Imagine the embarrassment of the flower-girls when they arrived on the stage and found the curtain down because the boy who pulled it had gone on a strike.

B.S.: I'll bet Eleanor Henrich would have cried if we hadn't found some flowers for her to carry up to the plays.

Cus.: After annihilating Turners Falls in a great game of Football, didn't that Thanksgiving victory dance go over well?

B.S.: Yes, and the Christmas vacation was topped by a New Year's dance.

Cus.: From January until April the Basketball Team did fair work in the Valley League, but did incomparable work outside the valley.

B.S.: "Cutie" Ballou and Russell Hubbard performed the honors for our Class in Basketball.

Cus.: My mind seems to wander after the Basketball season because I can't seem to remember what happened after that.

B.S.: Of course you do. Don't you remember the Band made its nth attempt to raise money for Band uniforms? "Pepita" met with much approval, but with little financial success. I can still remember the joyous times we had during its production.

Cus.: How unusual! We had Tea Dances then. — What did we do for music?

B.S.: What does the book have to offer on the subject?

Cus.: Oh, yes! "The Greenfield High School

Syneopators blossomed out with some syncopated noise to which the students tried to dance at the Tea Dances." But, what was the purpose of it all?

B.S.: To help defray the expenses of the Year Book, don't you remember?

Cus.: Perfectly, now that you speak of it.

B.S.: They couldn't have been so bad, because they were asked to play at a regular Senior Dance on June 5th of that year.

Cus.: But, speaking of Year Books, trouble was trouble when they started taking pictures for that Year Book.

B.S.: (As Mr. Smith, reading notice.) "Pictures of the Senior Class, Dramatic Club, Student Council will be taken at the close of school."

Cus.: (As student.) "Mr. Smith, Bruce Ellis has gone home for something to eat again so we can't have the Senior Class picture taken, and Ernest Wedge fell down stairs with a tray of cream puffs, so he's in no condition to have his picture taken."

B.S.: (As Mr. Smith.) (A big sigh.) "Will these pictures ever be taken? — What next!"

Cus.: Those were the days! Well, "Bill," I've an appointment at five o'clock at John Caldwell's False Teeth Tooth-Paste Company, so I'll be seeing you soon. Good-bye!

B.S.: Good-bye! Come in again!

William D. Blake
E. Louise Causebrook

The Class Song

Four years of struggle, work, and play
For dear old G. H. S.

Have swiftly passed along their way
Midst triumph and success.
And now the Class of Thirty-One
Upon the threshold stands,
The task complete, the guerdon won,
The future in our hands.

Yet as we reach the goal, we find
Our thoughts still backwards stray,
And memories are brought to mind
Of many a happy day.
So now we bid farewell to you,
With sorrow and regret;
The friends we've made, both firm and true,
We never shall forget.

Oh, G. H. S., farewell to thee!
Thy motto we'll keep true,
With scholarship and loyalty
We'll honor bring to you.
We'll never cease our endless praise
Within the years to come;
We'll each be loyal all our days —
The Class of Thirty-One.

Marion E. Smith

Prophecy of the Class of 1931

Time: In the year of our Lord 1941.

Place: Ladies and Gentlemen, we wish to have you imagine that you are seated in the Roxy Theatre in New York City. The orchestra has just finished playing, the theatre is dark, and the talking newsreel is about to be flashed upon the screen.

DIRECTOR: How do you do, ladies and gentlemen? May I present the Minnie Block talking newsreel. We bring to you the latest events and personages of the day, which are described to you through the voices of Graham Smacknamee and Miss Helen Willis.

Graham: We open this afternoon's program with some scenes taken in California showing the first game in a tennis match between the single Ladies Champion, Miss Red Alger, and the National Love Bird Champion, Mr. William Blake.

Helen: Now we are in New York City where the National Women's Swimming Championships are being held. The girls are passing before the camera now. I'll give their names as they cross: Miss Lois Atcherson, from Skowhegan, Maine; Miss Esther Spat, from South Bernside, Mass.; Miss Mary Gorey, from West Deerfield, Mass.; Miss Elsie Allen, from Peoria, Illinois; Miss Hester Barker, from East Haystack, Minnesota; Miss Elizabeth Attesi, from East Northfield, Mass.; ah — what's this? — Oh, yes, here come the soap and towel carriers: John Bouker, John Caldwell, Avery Demond, and the mascot Harold Burke.

Graham: We are still in New York City, and now we take you to the dedication ceremonies at the top of the World's Tallest Building, the Massachusetts State Building. This building was erected in the record time of eight months by the John Failla Construction Company. Among the notables present at the dedication today are: The right and left honorable Governor of Massachusetts, Mr. Ernest Alphonse Wedge; the very honorable State

Treasurer of Massachusetts, His Honor, Mr. Edwin Gregory, LLD., Mr. Kenneth Waide, president of the Wood School of Music, and the only person in the world who knows the answer to that far-famed question "Do You Know What?", Miss Mary Louise Allen, president of Mt. Holyoke College, and Mr. Fullerton Milo Galbraith, the curly headed bean, pardon me, I mean dean of the American stage. (The stage that runs from East Burlap, Maine, to South Overshoe, New Hampshire.)

Helen: Now we journey to the wilds of Shattuckville, Porto Rico, where we see a detachment of U. S. Marines, under the leadership of General Sheldon Bliss, formerly a general in the "Flit" army of insect exterminators, starting for the jungle where they hope to catch the bandit, General "Iron Muscle" Ballou. The transports upon which the marines journeyed to Shattuckville are under the command of Rear Rear Past Admiral Samuel "Shampoo" Tullio.

Graham: We are now in the Yankee Stadium in New York, where we are witnessing a baseball game between the New York All Stars and the Washington Aces. Manager John Hyson of the All Stars has as his battery: Paul Looney, pitcher, and Donald Thurlow, catcher. Manager John Bowe of the Aces has as his battery Karl Maloy, pitcher, and Russell Hubbard, the flashy backstopper, as his catcher. Mayor Leland "Powder Puff" Cote of New York, the world's best dressed and most polished mayor is throwing out the first ball. Among the notables that I can see in the Mayor's box are Judge Edmond Tetreault, U. S. baseball commissioner and the "big cheese" of baseball, Clayton Totman and Kieran Moylan, coaches, respectively, of football and baseball at Notre Dame University and Mr. Leonard Berry, third assistant assistant to Judge Tetreault. Helen will describe the feminine styles of the audience.

Helen: The Misses Dorothy Braff, Elizabeth Haigis, Betty Collins, "Peggie" Connors, and Evelyn Webster, from the Broadway production "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" now playing at Chanin's 46th Street Theatre, are dressed in beautiful pink and green sport costumes designed by May Donovan and Anna Cavanaugh of the Fifth Avenue store of McLaren and Michelman. This company also sells, as a sideline, a fine imported stock of Mexican jumping beans which have become the rage of New York City.

Graham: We now take you to the great speedway at Indianapolis where you will see some of the world's most famous auto racing drivers. Let me introduce first of all the ace of them all, Bruce "Barney Oldfield" Ellis. Bruce says he began his racing career, at the age of seventeen playing chauffeur to a bunch of milk bottles at the Wayside Dairy, Greenfield, Mass. Among the other famous drivers present we have, Warren Facey, who is driving a 1913 Buick racer, Stanley Hartwell, in his 1924 Dodge truck racer, Mary Lynch, outstanding feminine speedster, in her 1925 Dodge touring, Louise Causebrook, in her 1928 Ford racer, and James Wheeler in his 1929 Indian racer.

Helen: Now we take a long trip to Greenwich Village where we will give you a glance at the more prominent members present at the Annual Beaux Arts Ball. Among the younger set of the New York artist colony who are present are: Lillian Mooney, Charles Lincoln, Helen Comins, and Monica King, famous for her masterpiece, "Horse Radishes at Play." The music for the occasion is being furnished by James "Key-hole" McCarthy and his Gigolos, assisted by that famous trio the "Chomiere Brothers," Everett and Henry. Henry has twice the voice of Everett which therefore makes it a trio.

Graham: Here we are at Boston, the Beaneaters' City, where we are welcoming some Arctic explorers who have just returned from exploring the Arctic in a row-boat. The bashful leader of the expedition is Georgie Coombs and he was assisted at the oars by Walter Broughan, the ice cutter; William Baxter, chief cook and bottle washer, and Georgie Grant, chief phonograph player. The operator of the souper hatrodine wireless set is Kenneth Clark, a big spot from the vest. Chief engineer of the Old Town Canoe Outboard Motor was Stanley "Red" Merriott. We are sorry we cannot introduce more of the crew but we are limited in time.

Helen: Now we take you to Pinehurst, South Carolina, for the U. S. Closed Golf Championship Matches. At present you are watching the final match between "Bobby Jones" Bushey and "Charley Farrell" Sobieski. Oh! did you see Bushey sink that putt? I'm not sure but I think it decided the match. Yes, it did, Bushey wins the championship by sinking a three inch putt.

Graham: Oh boy! Oh boy! Oh boy! look at these girls. Here we are at the new Greenfield, Mass., Municipal Swimming Hole to watch a bathing beauty contest under the management of that handsome heart breaker, Charles Noyes. The measurers for the contest are the Bernstein sisters and Elwyn Weld. Ah! here come the girls. I'll see you in a minute. Meanwhile Helen will continue the description.

Helen: Here they come; these girls are the most beautiful in Franklin County. Here, I'll name them; "Sis" Ashley, a beautiful blonde, "Kay" Battey, a stunning brunette, Doris Mason, another blonde, but wearing a red bathing suit, Elizabeth Whitbeck, the girl from Maple Street, Alice Walters, another blonde, but wearing a blue bathing suit, and Thelma Thayer, a brunette in a black sun-back suit. Here comes another, a real beauty, oh! pardon me, it's only Graham.

Graham: Now we are back in little old New York again where we will attend a meeting of the New York Rotary Club. The Rotarians have as their speakers today several prominent New York business men. Let me introduce them. Here is Robert Magoon Koch, who will speak on "Groceries and Their Origin." Let me tell you this man knows his onions. Then comes Clarence Strecker who will speak on the "Joys of Undertaking." Clarence is a boy who knows his corpses. The final speaker is Irwin Hale of the Hale-Stone School of Dancing. He will speak on "Learning to Glide With the Greatest Ease." (On your partner's feet.)

Helen: Now our cameraman takes us inside the New Paramount Theatre where we are to see Milly Jarvis, and her Gymnastic Gym-Gnats, give an exhibition of dumbbells. Among them are: Ada Elmer, Lonita Harlow, formerly a reporter for the "New York Star," Minnie Gendler, Roberta Carpenter, Helen Parzyck, and Dot Morse. The chief caretaker of the dumbbells is Ruth Jones. They are assisted in their act by a group of dancers from the Alice Pulaski School of Voice Culture. I will name them as they trip across the stage. The first little tripper is Helen Major, the second little trapper is Pauline Witty, and all the little triplets are: Ella Widdison, Eleanor Wright, Helen Prysby, Kay Scannell, and "Jerry" Maniatty.

Graham: I now take you to the Springfield, Mass., Athletic Club where a banquet is being held for a group of far-famed athletes. Among the Spanish athletes present are Anton Mushovic and Morris Maynard. There are several women athletes present who are world famous; Dot Kartcheske, singles; Rebecca LaPoint, doubles; Beatrice LeBaron, women's professional tennis champion and Eleanor Henrich, basketball champion. There are several other men champions present at this banquet among whom are, Roy Newton, a traveling drummer; Myron Powers, a football champ; and "Ossie" Prouty, another bigger and better Spanish Athlete.

Helen: Now we go to Garden City, Long Island, to see the umpteenth Annual Convention of writers and publishers. There are several writers of philosophy present whose names are: Ellen Crowningshield, Dorothy Goodby, Evelyn Jablonski, and Ella Judd. There is also a large group of fictitious fiction writers present whose cognomens are: Elizabeth McGrath, James Sheehan, Paul Schrader, and William Schotte. Then, among the publishers we have, Lawrence Newhall from the firm of Page and Payne; and Betty Kelleher from the firm of Bullette and Rice.

Graham: We are now in Los Angeles, California, where we are to see a contest between the leading boy and girl typists of the world. The more favored contestants are, Helen Bonneville, Ernestine Bostley, Mary Berry, Ernest Lapointe, Russell Hawley and Ruth Breslin. They're off, look at those fingers fly, whew! this is one hot match. They've finished — the judges are deciding, now they're awarding — well, well, a dark horse candidate won the contest, Margaret Bulman wins the first prize, a stuco bathrub, Ina Carroll wins second, and Ellen Chiz finishes third. What's the matter with the men? Oh — they're angry because they didn't win a place in the contest. They're having a conference. Let's see there's Stanley Burgess, Erwin Hoelle, Clyde Hamilton, Morrison Finnie, and Ralph Duncan, getting ready for a contest among themselves. There goes the starting whistle! Those fellows are good, Burgess forges ahead, now he is behind, no, he's ahead; well, anyway, he's still in the race. Ah! It's over, the judges have decided that Duncan wins, and everybody is happy.

Helen: Here we are in Washington at the Patent Office to see the latest inventions that have been turned in. What's this? A "bladeless knife," invented by Henry Ozdarski. Then there is a Relative Exterminator that is bound to disapprove Einstein's theory on relativity. This invention is the work of Ronald Malloch, the big butter and egg man. Here is a "never fail" clothespin invented by Helen Collings and Geneva Condraski. The last object we see here is a "bottomless" ash can invented by Helen Curtis, Evelyn Jackson, and Irene Jacobs.

Graham: Here we are in Chicago at the dedication of a new fountain. This fountain was donated to the city by that famous "nickel nuser" millionaire, Edward Lynch. Many notables are present. Let me point out a few; Elizabeth Maynard, president of the American Educational Institute; Anna Kiefer, manager of the Kiefer chain doughnut stores, makers of fine embroidered doughnuts; Ruth Lee, head of the French department at the University of Chicago; Mary Lukow, manager of the Factory Hollow Bicycle Works; and Marguerite LaPean, head of the Tirrell Paint Works.

Helen: We are now at the Cunard Dock in Boston watching the passengers board the "Leviathan" for a "round the world cruise." Here, let me give you an idea of the people included in the passenger list. I see many beautiful frocks, and clothes of every description arranged against the background of the majestic "Leviathan." We have with us, Miss Ruth Markley, principal of the South Boston Latin School; Anna McLellan, head of clothing firm of Metzler and Moleski; and Pauline Ogonis, Lillian Poirier, and Bessie Poulos chosen for a trip abroad as the three representative girls on the American stage.

Graham: The Leviathan has just sailed down the bay and now in the final picture of the day we are at the dock in New York watching a troupe of dancers arrive from Paris. The dancers have just returned from the Moulin Rouge in Paris where they have been trying to please the bald-headed row. The girls are, Blanche Pydyeh, pride of Gill, Mass., Pauline Ruggeri, of Bernardston, Mass., Viola Simondisky, of Mill River, Omaha, Blanche Stahelek of East Wastepaper, Maine, and Marian Sullivan of Conway, Mass. Included on the passenger list were; Rev. Marion Smith, who has just returned from a pilgrimage to the Holy Land, and Mary Togneri, assistant vice-president of the Art Stone Co.

Director: Thus, cash customers, friends, etc., closes the first and only showing of the "Minnie Block" talking newsreel. Our motto is: "All the News—and—what about it?"

Signed,

Wonders of Science

THE question "Why?" has probably been asked more times in the history of the world than any other. It has been the constant query of mankind since it was first uttered. The answers which men have found and the organized knowledge obtained by observation and reasoning make up what we call the sciences. The word science standing alone means knowledge, coming from the Latin word scio, to know.

Science is one of the oldest things in the world. The ancient Egyptians understood one of the greatest of sciences, astronomy. They also were far advanced in the sciences of mathematics, both theoretical and practical. It has been found that in Central America the people of thousands of years ago were well along in the science of surgery.

Many of us do not realize that the comforts as well as the joys of everyday life are preserved by scientific knowledge. Electricity, considered the greatest servant in the world was discovered and put to work only through the research of scientific men. Recently science has been used to save many materials and to manufacture goods in a cheaper and better way. Formerly by-products of certain manufacturing processes were thrown away as useless, but now science steps in and finds a use for these wastes. This knowledge results in the saving of millions of dollars a year the world over.

In the South, where cotton raising and manufacturing are the chief occupations, no use was made of the cotton seeds after the oil had been squeezed from them. An efficient chemist worked with this waste material until he found a use for the discarded pulp and husks. His final product is a material which, when colored green, is used to cover the greens of miniature golf courses. Just after the war many big manufacturing plants were left with large supplies of gunpowder on their hands. It couldn't be left around and it would cost money to throw it in a river. So a chemist, knowing that gunpowder was made from cellulose which has many uses, conceived a way of turning the gunpowder back into cellulose. The result is found on the many shining automobiles which have been painted with a substance chiefly made up of cellulose. Cactus, once considered a total waste, is now being used in many ways. The liquid which is stored up in the cactus leaves has been found to counteract the corrosion and rust caused by boiling hard water in containers. Introducing one gallon of cactus juice will completely correct 80,000 gallons of water and prevent it from causing boiler scale. Cactus fibres are now used to make a kind of silk cloth which is made into fancy handkerchiefs. So the lowly cactus is now making up for lost time and providing work for a great number of people. These are some of the practical, everyday wonders of science.

Some years ago the average length of the human life was 31 years. Science has now greatly bettered this average until it is now around 56 years. Part of the credit for this betterment is owed to a professor, Elie Metchnikoff. He decided that since Bulgaria had the longest average life there must be something in their mode of living or their diet which was responsible. On going to Bulgaria he found that their diet included very many sour cheeses. So he made a study of cheeses, finding that they contained bacilli which were very healthful. This Bulgarian Bacilli may now be bought in drug stores, or milk may be bought which has had these bacilli introduced into it. By this and other means, science has also progressed greatly in decreasing infant death rate.

Science has taught men to build beautiful and strong buildings. It has brought the telephone, the telegraph, and the radio. It has produced the train, the automobile, and the airplane. It will continue to do all these and more wonderful things in the future. In short, science feeds us, clothes us, protects us, makes life easier for us, makes us happier, makes our lives longer, and heals us when we are sick. Finally, we are even buried scientifically.

Valedictory

CLASSMATES: For four years we have worked and played here in this school, always looking forward to the time when we might graduate. Now, when we have actually reached that goal we look back fondly upon the memories of our school years. We remember with gratitude the help and interest given by our teachers and we will try to show our appreciation by our success and accomplishments in the future.

May you always have the courage and perseverance necessary to make life a success.

The Ivy Song

We plant the Ivy here
With tender loving care.
Oh, may it grow each year more green
And spread its mantle fair.

We plant the Ivy here;
We love its very name.
And as it grows, henceforth, may we
In power and in fame.

This plant we honor now;
It brings the past so near.
Fond mem'ries gather round us
As we plant the Ivy here.

Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club of Greenfield High School, or the Masquers as it should be called, is one of the oldest clubs in the school.

The club was founded in 1925 under the supervision of Miss Edna Merrill, and Miss Marian Atherton. The first Club President was Dugald MacIntyre. It was formed immediately after the Senior Play of that year, and the interest taken in it was undoubtedly due to the success of that play.

The meetings then were run as they are now, plays being presented both for amusement and for instruction. The Masquers has helped out many social affairs of G. H. S. by presenting plays. Students enjoy belonging to the Masquers, and this organization has been a credit to the school.

Student Council

Through the work of Mr. Smith, the Constitution and By-Laws of a Students' Activities Society were drawn up and adopted in November 1918. During the first six years of its existence this Society acted more or less as a Board of Directors for student activities.

When the present High School was completed in 1924, the existing Student Council was first organized. The Council originally consisted of a few members, but through the growth of activities the membership has increased until it now totals 24.

This year the Council has sponsored several activities, among them: Larry Gould Lecture, Wonders of Electricity, Venetian Glass Blowers and Jean Gros Puppets.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y Club has been an active organization in this school for a number of years, but it has done much more work since 1924 (the year this building was opened) than it did in the preceding years.

In that year, Mr. B. C. L. Sander met Stuart Ward, William Merriam, and William Zschau and they decided to re-vivify the movement. The result of this decision is the present club which is self-perpetuating and has a membership of 44 with three faculty advisers.

The officers who were elected for the year 1931—1932 are: President, Edward J. Lalor; Vice-President, Augustine Kamienski; Secretary, Bernard R. Alex, and Treasurer, Robert T. Bitters.

Science Club

In 1923, when the interest in radios had somewhat decreased, science in general was introduced. Thus the present club was changed from a Radio Club to a Science Club. Membership is open to pupils of the three upper classes. Freshmen may be invited to attend after mid-years. The purpose of the Science Club is to promote an interest in science among the pupils of the Greenfield High School.

Los Alumnos de Español Spanish Club

The Spanish Club, which was founded by Misses Chapin and Curtis in 1925, has been one of the most important clubs of Greenfield High School. Last year this club had a "year's leave of absence." This year, 1930-1931, however, Mr. Alliston Wetherell, our new Spanish teacher, permitted us to revive the Club.

During the past year many interesting accounts on Spanish Literature were given at meetings, as well as a few Spanish plays.

The last meeting took place May 13th when the charter of "Los Alumnos de Espanol" was buried. The Spanish students are sorry to see that not only the club, but also the course itself, is being dropped from the courses of Greenfield High.

Debating Club

One of the outstanding contributions of the Class of 1931 to G. H. S. has been the school's first debating club in over two decades. This group was first organized as the Senior Debating Club, with membership open only to Seniors and Post-Graduates. But as the club advanced in proficiency it became evident that, to provide for a permanent organization, lower classmen must be admitted. So an amendment to the constitution was made whereby Sophomores and Juniors are eligible for membership. Several public appearances have been made, and next year the club expects to offer a strong Varsity group for competition with other schools. The Debating Club owes much of its success to Miss Joyce and Mr. Godley, the Faculty Advisers, who have given every assistance.

Archery Club

In the early fall of 1930 several High School students became interested in archery. A meeting was called, under the supervision of Mr. Clinton Weymouth, and officers were elected.

The club feels that archery is one of the most enjoyable and healthful forms of outdoor activity, developing muscular coordination, self-control, poise, and physical and mental judgment. It is a sport that can be continued after school or college, affording a most worthy use of leisure time.

The club wishes to express its appreciation to the town's people and the committee on Playground and Recreation for their interest in our club and the sport as shown by the new archery range at Beacon field.

Senior Commercial Club

The Seniors taking the commercial course organized the Senior Commercial Club last October in order to bring the students together socially and to increase their knowledge of, and interest in, commercial work. Both these objectives have been attained in the year's program. At one meeting Mr. Frank P. White, an industrial engineer, gave an interesting talk on the principles of accounting; at other meetings there have been typing and spelling contests. The club has also helped finance an interscholastic commercial contest.

Greenfield Girl Scouts

Troop 5

Troop 5 of the Greenfield Girl Scouts was accepted on May 22nd by the Student Council on an equal basis with other clubs. The troop, which was organized in September 1930, is composed of High School girls who have passed the Tenderfoot test. During the year the girls have held supper meetings entertaining speakers; several girls have done special work in astronomy; others have attended the drumming class, and still others have acted as assistants in local troops.

Then and Now

Four years ago the members of the Class of 1931 first entered the sacred portals of the Greenfield High School to become regular members of this institution of learning. Very naive were these youngsters, the girls, with their socks, short dresses, and curls, and the boys still wearing blouses and pantaloons.

For several days these "babes" wandered around the corridors wondering just what it was all about. At last the Seniors came to the rescue and soon the "Freshies" were well advanced on their long march down the hall to the doorway toward life.

Each September this class has re-entered the school with more assurance, laughing at the newcomers, and saying to one another, "Heavens were we ever as small and insignificant as that?"

Had the teachers heard them they might have answered, "Yes, indeed, and you've hardly grown at all." Probably they would have said afterwards to themselves, "Mentally."

Finally after swaggering around to a great extent this past year the Class of 1931 has reached its goal. The last class, the last exams, the last Senior dance, and the last "P.M." session has been experienced. After this—graduation! We have with us today a group of young sophisticates who have learned all there is to know and need no more advice. They eagerly grasp their diplomas and with a hop, skip and a jump, land on the outside of that doorway which encloses childhood and adolescence. Never again can they go back.

Soon, in the battle of life they will learn that one never knows everything and that advice, based on interest and a desire to be helpful, is always a most welcome thing. As they look back on their attitude at Commencement they will stop and quote a line learned from Shakespeare while in G. H. S. "Ah—what fools these mortals be!"

Northeastern University

The School of Engineering

In co-operation with engineering firms, offers curriculums leading to the Bachelor of Science degree in the following branches of engineering:

CIVIL ENGINEERING
MECHANICAL ENGINEERING
ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING
CHEMICAL ENGINEERING
INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERING

The Co-operative Plan of training enables the student to combine theory with two years of practice and makes it possible for him to earn his tuition and a part of his other school expenses.

Students admitted in either September or December may complete the scholastic year before the following September.
